NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION

Brilliant Function That Was Held By Gen. MacArthur At Manila.

WAS WELL ATTENDED

For Three Hours a Line of Vehicles Carried the Many Callers.

Manila, Jan. 1.—If President McKinley's New Year's reception proves greater than that of Gen. MacArthur, it will not be the fault of the people of Manila. This reception was the first official social function at which the Americans and Filipinos have mingled in a social way. For three hours a stream of vehicles wound their way through the grounds of the governor general's residence and discharged their callers—official and civilian—most of them natives, though there was a sprinkling of foreigners. The American flag, branches of pine flowers and vines predominated in the decorations throughout the mansion. The reception was held by Gen. MacArthur, the wife of several generals assisted. The introductions were made by Gen. MacArthur's staff, assisted by members of the staff of Admiral Hensley. The callers, after having been introduced, passed on up a broad balcony overlooking the Pasig river, and a majority of them lingered about the mansion until the ceremonies were finished. Archbishop Chapelle, the apostolic delegate to the Philippines, and other church dignitaries were received first. The members of the Philippine commission, accompanied by their wives, were next. Their attire formed a decided contrast to the white and gold uniforms of the Philippine army and navy. The Filipino women wore elaborate native costumes and conversed affably in Spanish. The use of carriage numbers was not understood by the natives, and much confusion occurred outside.

FIGURES RUN HIGH

Total of Duluth Building and Really Operations Very Satisfactory.

MORE THAN MILLION

Value of Buildings Erected Passes That Market—Comparisons.

Conditions inspiring supreme confidence justify the prediction that in all fields of business enterprise the pendulum of trade is swinging toward the south of Duluth's commercial and industrial development.

This is especially true of the Duluth real estate market. It has been steady, strong and healthy throughout the past year, and while not especially active, a summing up of the year's work is satisfying.

Building operations in this city for the past year amounted to $1,020,000. This is $200,000 greater than the total for last year, which was $820,000.

Transactions in real estate, mining lands and timber in St. Louis county during the past year aggregated $14,727,122. For the year of 1899 the total was $12,000,000.

Notwithstanding this showing realty transactions in St. Louis county during the past year were not so large as in the year 1899, except in the month of May. In that month during the preceding year the sale of the four millage interests of the head of the lake to the Duluth and Superior millage company for $1,000,000, and that explains why 1899 ran ahead of the 1900 in this respect.

It is not, however, for monthly comparison the past year to have the best of it substantial market, except in the month mentioned.

The Herald's estimate of building operations at Duluth for the year 1900, if anything, is conservative. It is based on the new building valuation books of the city assessor's office, and these books are posted from the permits issued by the city engineer's office. The estimate is based on the face of the permits, and it is taken on the basis of the building books.

The table of comparison between the years 1899 and 1900, in the matter of building operations, are as follows:

January $1,200,000
February $1,200,000
March $1,200,000

FOUND A CLUE.

Mystery of the Murder of Millionaire Richardson Being Probed.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 1.—The revolver used in the murder of the millionaire merchant, Chas. Richardson, at St. Joseph, Mo., Christmas eve, has been found, and detectives are busy today, endeavoring to establish the ownership of the weapon.

Richardson, the domestic of the Richardson home, was the principal suspect in the murder. He was mysteriously disappeared from the house on the night of the crime, and his body was recovered from the northern part of the state with the revolver in his hand. His evidence was contradictory.

She said George Crowley and Stuart Fife, both business partners of the merchant, had been seen at St. Joseph, Mo., on the night of the murder. She had been overheard by her husband, E. E. Tatum, a wealthy merchant, during the absence of her husband, and she had been overheard by her husband, E. E. Tatum, a wealthy merchant, during the absence of her husband.

This is especially true of the Duluth real estate market. It has been steady, strong and healthy throughout the past year, and while not especially active, a summing up of the year's work is satisfying.

Building operations in this city for the past year amounted to $1,020,000. This is $200,000 greater than the total for last year, which was $820,000.

Transactions in real estate, mining lands and timber in St. Louis county during the past year aggregated $14,727,122. For the year of 1899 the total was $12,000,000.

Notwithstanding this showing realty transactions in St. Louis county during the past year were not so large as in the year 1899, except in the month of May. In that month during the preceding year the sale of the four millage interests of the head of the lake to the Duluth and Superior millage company for $1,000,000, and that explains why 1899 ran ahead of the 1900 in this respect.

It is not, however, for monthly comparison the past year to have the best of it substantial market, except in the month mentioned.

The Herald's estimate of building operations at Duluth for the year 1900, if anything, is conservative. It is based on the new building valuation books of the city assessor's office, and these books are posted from the permits issued by the city engineer's office. The estimate is based on the face of the permits, and it is taken on the basis of the building books.

The table of comparison between the years 1899 and 1900, in the matter of building operations, are as follows:

January $1,200,000
February $1,200,000

West Duluth

Three boys, Neil Nelson, Fred Archer and Herman Selva, whose ages range from 15 to 17 years, were arrested by the West Duluth police department this morning on the charge of burglarizing the store of Charles Anderson at Raleigh street and Sixty-third avenue west, on Sunday night. There were four boys in the gang that did the deed, but one of them, Nelson, tipped it off to the fourth lad that arrest was imminent and he ducked. The police expect to land him before tonight, however. Lieut. Briggs, who has been working on the case, very quickly traced the crime to the boys, and Nelson finally confessed to the officer that he had a third of the goods hid for Archer, and that the other boys took charge of their own booty. Selva has confessed to his share in the robbery, and this morning Lieut. Briggs had recovered considerable of the stuff. The total amount taken would foot up to about $20 or $25. The lads were at the West Duluth headquarters this morning, but were taken to Duluth for examination this afternoon. Some of the lads come from very respectable families, young Selva particularly, whose father is pastor of one of the West Duluth churches.

GOES TO LOUISIANA.

Duluth will be called on next Monday to lose another of her well-known and respected citizens, in the person of E. E. Gilpin, who will leave on that date for Louisiana, where he has the offer of a large position with a lumber-sawing company that operates the entire year. Mr.

Gilpin came from Pennsylvania a number of years ago and first settled at Carlton, where he entered and remained in the employ for sixteen years of Charles Leland, now president of the Commercial bank of this city. Mr. Gilpin did not know enough about the null business to see a board straight when he first came to this country, but he kept at it until he finally had full charge of Mr. Leland's interests. For the past four years he has been a resident of West Duluth and has been the head liner at the St. Louis mill. Mr. Gilpin has a wide circle of friends that will regret his departure, but wish him well in his new field. His family will not leave until next summer. Mr. Gilpin is a thirty-second degree Mason, a shiner and one of the stockholders in the Zenith Telephone company.

WEST DULUTH BRIEFS.

There is a report current that the Moosey club has disbanded with the beginning of the new year. The reason is said to lie in the fact that some of the bachelor members are either contemplating matrimony, or the wives of some of the benefactors intend to enforce a set of resolutions among which is a clause that the husband must not remain away from home for more than a week. The installation of the Modern Samaritans does not occur until next Monday night, a mistake having been made in a previous announcement. New Year's day passed off very quietly, but pleasantly at West Duluth yesterday. Skating parties and one or two sleighing parties were among the pleasures of the day for the young people. James and William Brotherton left today for college at St. John's, Minn. The latter has been attending the school, but was home for the holiday vacation.

Herman Nyhus left today for the north shore, where he will be employed as timekeeper in some cedar tie camps. Charles Petruschke and Christ Bernhard have purchased homes on Fifty-third avenue west. Lawrence Gilley has returned from Chicago, where he attended the wedding of a friend in the capacity of best man. Professor Simon Ward, of Pennsylvania, who is the new principal to succeed A. T. Parks at the Frodoorhott school, spent New Year's with the family of his cousin, E. E. Gilpin. Tomorrow afternoon the West Duluth branch of the W. C. T. U. will hold a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Beemer. Mrs. N. C. Hendricks will be the leader and the topic of the papers and of the discussion will be "A Century of Temperance Work." Addresses will be made by Mrs. Hill, the county president of the W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Phelps. Refreshments will be served. The Pioneer saloon has changed hands. C. O. Swenson buying from Phil Connors. William Cashin has gone to the woods to scale for the Lumber Company. John Cashin will scale for Mitchell & McClure in one of their camps this winter. Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Cavanaugh, of Hamline, returned to their home yesterday after a short visit at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Oliver Day, of Fifty-seventh avenue west. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wright, of 115 North Sixty-third avenue west, died yesterday morning. The funeral took place from the family residence this afternoon. Oliver and Pure drugs at right angles. On Monday night a large and enjoyable sleighing party was given by young Gertrude Isenstrom, of the home of Mrs. C. W. Swanson, on Forty-fourth avenue west. The home also received $25 from Mrs. M. H. Alworth as a Christmas gift, and also acknowledges the receipt of grain samples from the board of trade amounting to $6.

Wants Them To Come.

No further information has as yet reached Duluth with reference to the shooting of Edward H. Burger by his wife at Asheville, N. C., and the details are still to be learned. The sons, Edward H., Jr., and Irving A., have received a telegram from Mr. Burger, asking them to come down there and it is likely that they will start this evening.

Alleged Circus Rioters Will Again Try To Obtain Release From Jail.

A HEARING SATURDAY

Claim Evidence at Preliminary Hearing Was Insufficient To Hold Them.

Another effort is being made to release the employees of the Great Syndicate circus, who were arrested last August by the state militia at Cloquet, and bound over to the grand jury from Cass county to answer to charges of riot. Judge Cant this morning signed an order for a writ of habeas corpus returnable in special term of district court Saturday morning, when the question of whether these men should be left in jail until next May will again be argued.

As there is no Cass county grand jury until next May, the circus men will have served nine months in jail when their cases are heard, unless the court takes action in the meantime to free them. If they are indicted by the grand jury, they will have served that term without its being considered in their sentences, if they should be convicted.

Habeas corpus proceedings were had for them last fall, but the court did not order their release. Now new proceedings have been begun by Baldwin & Baldwin, their attorneys. Four out of the six men in jail are named in the writ, as follows: James W. Beattie, M. S. McGrew, Charles Huggins and William Hall.

In the petition asking the writ, they state that they are now being held in jail without due cause, that the complaint on which they were arrested and on which they were bound over does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, that the complaint is not certain as to the offense charged, and that the evidence adduced in the hearing before the Cass Lake justice of the peace did not give probable cause for holding them.

The evidence received in the Cass Lake hearing is made a part of the proceedings, and the court will have an opportunity to pass upon the question of whether the men are to remain in the justice in holding the petitioners to the grand jury. Copies of the complaint and warrant are also given.

A Reckless Slaughter.

The Hub, appropriately enough, is the center of big bargains in men's and boys' clothing just now, as the fourth annual "Red Figure Sale" is now in progress. A large stock of new goods in these lines is being laid before the public at figures that have hardly the remotest acquaintance with the regular prices, and only a nodding acquaintance with cost prices, so deeply has the knife cut into these goods, and they are usually needed to make investments of this sort. The Hub management, in announcing this sale, states that it is doing so, too, precisely, not reckoning with the warm spell that occupied the earlier part of the winter. The consequence is that there is a big surplus that must be put out of the way, and "Red Figure Sale" is the means that was adopted to this end. The result is the opportunity now offered to the public to obtain for men's and children's clothing at prices that do not occur often.

Coldest of the Winter.

This was the coldest morning of the winter, the government thermometer registering 18 degrees below zero about 10 o'clock. The coldest, therefore, was Monday morning, when 17 degrees below was the low limit. The entire Northwest is in the grasp of the cold wave, as low as 40 degrees below being registered in some places. The outlook for more moderate temperature tonight and tomorrow.

COURT OPENS.

Cases To Be Called In Sure a Fairly Long Term—Calendar Called.

The January term of district court opened this morning, and while the number of cases on the calendar was not especially large, the number that was held for trial was proportionately large, and the nature of many of the cases that are to be tried is such as to indicate a very tedious term. There are some important actions on the calendar that were noted for trial this morning, and some of the trial which will be likely to keep the jury busy for several weeks at any rate. The criminal calendar, on the other hand, is light, and there will be comparatively little criminal business to be done.

All three of the judges were on hand at the opening of court, and Judge Delah, who will have supervision of the calendar this term, had charge of the calling of the calendar in room No. 1. There was not a very large attendance of the bar.

When the calendar was reached it was found to contain ninety-eight cases. One was subsequently added to it, making the number ninety-nine. In the call twenty-five cases were stricken or dismissed, leaving seventy-four for trial. This number was just equally divided between court and jury cases, thirty-seven of each.

The divorce calendar made a very slender showing on the blackboard, there being only three cases for trial. These were set for hearing tomorrow, as follows: Winifred J. Drohan, Leon Kugel against Edith Kugel and Carrie Kugel against Peter O. Quirrup.

It fell to Judge Cant to charge the grand jury, but owing to the fact that some of the members were summoned from the range towns and could not get here until this afternoon, there was no quorum this morning, and the grand jury were excused to this afternoon, when the charge was to be made. The grand jury are more fortunate than citizens who have been summoned to court, for they are not required to appear unless they have been summoned to appear, and it will be possible for them to do all of it in a very short time.

The three different courts will be constituted as follows: Court room No. 1—Chief Justice, M. Jacoby, clerk. Court room No. 2—Hon. J. D. Ensign, judge; R. H. Hairs, deputy sheriff; B. J. Anderson, clerk. Court room No. 3—Hon. W. A. Cant, judge; W. J. Bates, deputy sheriff; Eugene Holloway, clerk.

Wages Slightly Cut.

G. S. Richards, of the National Employment company, returned today from a week's visit to St. Paul and Minneapolis. In regard to the labor situation in Minneapolis, Mr. Richards says that orders are coming in to that point quite freely, but the demand is not so large for men as it was a year ago. Wages offered the men from that point are also up to the $20 and $20 mark, after subtracting a cut of from $4 to $6 per day. Wages on the railroad contract work up on the Duluth & Iron Range road were cut from $1.75 to $1.60 per day, taking effect Jan. 1. Even at that figure it is claimed that there is no trouble getting plenty of men, and that a great deal of about thirty was sent out this afternoon.

Red Wing Too Strong.

Duluth Y. M. C. A. colors were lowered for the first time this season in the basketball games at Red Wing yesterday. Up to this point the Red Wing team had not been defeated, and it is known of the games except the scores and the fact that the Red Wing team had won. The afternoon game was taken by Red Wing by a score of 20 to 12, and the evening game by 11 to 6.

Red Wing will play a return game here in the near future, and the local enthusiasts expect to see Duluth win.

A FRIGHTFUL EXPERIENCE.

Atlantic Steamer Went Ashore During a Snow Storm.

St. John, N. B., Jan. 2.—The British steamer Lyons, Capt. McPherson, from Montreal, N. B., went ashore during a heavy snow storm last night at Lunenburg, and is now lying at anchor in the harbor. The ship was damaged, and the crew and passengers are being cared for by the local authorities.

A CREWMAN FELL FROM THE STEAMER. The crewman, who was on duty at the time the ship went ashore, fell from the deck and was injured. He is now being treated by the local medical authorities.

THE SHIP IS DESTROYED. The Lyons was completely destroyed by the fire which broke out on board. The ship was a valuable cargo carrier, and the loss is a heavy one for the shipping company.

NEW YORK SOLICITS. The New York office of the shipping company is now soliciting for the replacement of the Lyons. They are looking for a ship of similar size and capacity.

A PRIMER OF CLEVELAND.

James D. Richards Dies at the Home of His Son in Duluth.

James D. Richards, a well-known business man of Cleveland, Ohio, died at the home of his son, John D. Richards, in Duluth, Minn., on Jan. 1. He was 78 years old and had been in poor health for some time.

Mr. Richards was a member of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce and was active in many of its affairs. He was also a member of the Duluth Chamber of Commerce.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Richards, and his son, John D. Richards, who is a prominent business man in Duluth.

The funeral will be held in Duluth on Jan. 3. The burial will take place in the local cemetery.

SINGULAR CASE.

Man Who Was Held Up But Can Tell Little of It.

A man who was held up by a gang of robbers on the Duluth & Iron Range road last night is now in the hospital. He is unable to give a full account of the robbery, but he has been able to identify some of the robbers.

The man, whose name is John Smith, was traveling alone at the time of the robbery. He was carrying a large sum of money with him.

The robbers forced him to get out of the train and then held him up. They took his money and fled with it.

The police are now looking for the robbers. They have a description of the men and are hoping to catch them soon.

Virginia People Would Hold Moon & Kerr Responsible For the Fire.

FOUR SUITS STARTED

Condition of the Plant and Grounds Claimed to Have Caused Fire.

Four very important suits are on the January term calendar, their object being to hold the Moon & Kerr Lumber Company responsible for the fire which destroyed the city of Virginia June 7, 1900, and to force the company to pay damages to the property owners that suffered loss through the fire.

It is probable that these suits are only a part of a larger movement on the part of the property owners to recover damages. The suits are being filed by the owners of the property that was destroyed by the fire.

The suits are being filed by the owners of the property that was destroyed by the fire. They are claiming that the company was negligent in its management of the plant and grounds.

HAD AMBITION.

Senator Towne and Congressman Smith Each Aspired to Distinction.

A Washington correspondent relates the following story: The new ad interim senator from Minnesota, Charles A. Towne, and Representative Smith, of Michigan, were friends ever since, although they have differed radically in politics. In their youthful days they thought the apex of all human glory was to be a congressman, and they decided that they go to congress. At the years passed by Smith remained at Grand Rapids and Towne went to Minnesota. One day a telegram from Towne was received by his old physician: "You have got to hustle to keep up with me, for I have been nominated for congress," said Towne.

A few days after Smith wired back: "I am in the procession. I was nominated for congress today."

On the morning after election Smith telegraphed: "Are you with me?" he asked. "I have been elected by 500 majority."

"Yes," replied Towne, "and I can go you 500 better."

The two new members arranged to come to Washington together, and side by side they appeared on the floor as members-elect. Then, arm in arm, they walked over to the senate, inquired with fear and trembling whether they could be admitted, and finally entered the elegant furnishings and envied the quiet dignity of the senators. On the way back to the house Towne took Smith by the arm and became confidential. "I say, William," he remarked, "don't you think we selected the wrong house?"

When Towne was sworn in as senator a few days ago Mr. Smith was present and was among the first to congratulate his friend. "I'm here before you," said Towne, "but I'm not going to stay as long as you will if you are fortunate enough to break in."

The Rev. W. C. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church in this city, has resigned, alleging as the reason that some members of his church slept during the services, says a Shannon, Pa. special to the Philadelphia Record. He charges Deacon John S. Williams with sleeping fifteen out of the last sixteen Sundays.

Last Sunday the Rev. Mr. Jones detected Mr. Williams napping while he was preaching. The pastor at once cut his sermon short and dismissed his congregation. He then handed in his resignation.

The New York supreme court recently decided a case in which a woman sought to enter rented apartments after midnight. The decision was against the woman. The landlord contended that he had a right to establish rules in keeping with the requirements of the public; that as public opinion would not permit admission into the public houses of women at all hours of the night, he had no choice but to comply with it. He had fixed upon the hour of 12 midnight, as reasonable, and the supreme court agreed with him that the hour was reasonable. This decision might have passed unchallenged if men were not allowed admission at all hours of the night against this discrimination women who contend that there should be no discrimination between the sexes in respect to night-night privileges have entered a vigorous protest. In these days, when women are doing the work formerly done by men, they of necessity keep about the same hours. Therefore, a business woman who is obliged to work late at night, and who has no other place to go to, is forced to enter the public houses at all hours of the night. This is a discrimination against women, and it is a discrimination which should be removed. The New York decision is likely to make the night-night controversy a live theme of discussion in women's clubs.

The Boston Transcript is of opinion that the young person who is dependent on such doctored histories as Abbott's of the Empress Josephine, and so imbues the idea that the wife of Bonaparte was a poor, abused woman, with a heart actually broken when the state divorced her from him, will be set to thinking, after reading M. Frederic Masson's remarks concerning this picturesque couple. As matters look to him from this distance, with all the facts he has been able to collect, he opines that Josephine was the first of the two to wish for a divorce—not for state reasons and not for any reason except that she was becoming tired of him. She believed, in fact, that she was a positive necessity to her husband. Still, she did later, as a good many other persons do, learn to estimate her possessions at the appraisal of others, and she saw him leading a good part of the world around by the nose, she came to think she didn't want him to leave her. There's nothing new, of course, to be said about the material facts in the lives of Napoleon and Josephine; still, they form such interesting topics for students of times and morals that they are difficult to drop. Now, however, for moderns there's the psychological aspect of the relations of the two to be studied, and there's a deal to be said about that.

The report has been given wide circulation that the national census of 1900 will show that the center of population is moving eastward.

This would seem to be a reversal of the theory that "westward the star of empire takes its way." However, this report may bear the tests of facts. It is certain that the Eastern cities have grown faster than the Western in the last ten years. It does not necessarily follow, of course, that the center of gravity of the nation has been stayed in its Western course and is returning East. While the growth of the Eastern cities has been rapid during the past decade the population in the country districts in the East has not kept pace with the growth of Western farming communities. The question of the center of population is a very interesting one. For many lines of business it is perhaps of little value. But the fact that Chicago, New York and Boston are north of the center of population is interesting, and the number of forces pulling upon the center of gravity indicate quite largely the drift of continental development. That the center of population, however, will move East again even during the twentieth century is scarcely to be anticipated.

PRESIDENT GRETSINGER.

The Herald extends congratulations to President J. L. Gretsinger, of the Duluth and Iron Range on his election to the presidency of the Minnesota Iron company. He will now be the chief executive officer of both these great allied corporations and at once becomes the most prominent figure in the iron mining and ore transportation world. His selection as the successor of Mr. Bacon at the head of the Minnesota Iron company is a fitting recognition of his ability and faithful services as an eminent officer of the railroad company. Mr. Gretsinger is a splendid example of the self-made man. Starting as a fireman on the Erie road over thirty years ago he has advanced steadily in the railroad service, serving in almost every capacity in the operating department and also becoming an expert telegraph operator, a knowledge which he frequently finds it convenient to exercise at the present time. Mr. Gretsinger became connected with the Duluth and Iron Range road in 1888 as master mechanic. In 1890 he was made superintendent, and two years subsequently became general manager and later in the same year was elected president of the road. His latest promotion will be highly pleasing to the employees of the road, with whom he has always been very popular.

Mr. Gretsinger's multitude of friends in Duluth and elsewhere have been hastening to congratulate him since the news came that he is to be the head of the iron company as well as direct the business of the railroad. The stockholders of the Minnesota Iron company can feel confident that their interests will be well looked after under his direction.

PANAMA IS FAVORED.

Arthur P. Davis, hydrographer for the isthmian canal commission, has an article in the Forum in which he has laid out a good case for the Panama route in comparison with the Nicaraguan project. He figures out that the portion of the Panama canal which has been constructed is worth $25,000,000 to the United States government, basing the calculation upon estimates of $24,000,000 as the cost of a canal on the Nicaraguan route. Since the commission has made its estimate at over $200,000,000 the same calculation would add about $65,000,000 to the value of Panama.

It is generally conceded that about Panama people have expended about $60,000,000 in actual construction. The subscriptions to the old company were practically $200,000,000, of which about one-fifth went into construction, the remainder into jobbery. The new Panama company has spent $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 in prosecuting the work. By the calculations of Mr. Davis the United States could afford to pay the Panama company a profit over its actual investment and still have an advantage of $20,000,000 over the Nicaraguan project. But it remains to be seen whether other members of the commission base their opinions upon identical data. There is no good reason why this country should throw away $20,000,000 or more on the Nicaraguan route if the Panama canal can be acquired and completed for that much less than the cost of the Nicaraguan waterway.

THE DANISH ISLANDS.

The rumor that this country may purchase the Danish West Indies has been revived during the past few weeks. The story has been denied, but subsequently word came from Denmark that negotiations were actually in progress and that a certain sum had been stated by the American minister there as the highest price the United States would pay. Consequently there may be negotiations going on under the direction of Secretary Hay. It is doubtful, however, if the purchase will be consummated.

Mindful of the embarrassing state of affairs which came about when our national senate curtly refused to ratify the treaty of purchase negotiated with Denmark more than a generation ago by Secretary Seward, both that kingdom and this republic have conducted the latter day negotiations for the transfer of the Danish Antilles to the American flag with exceeding caution. It is not remarkable when one bears in mind what a number of high expectations and elaborate plans on both sides of the Atlantic were used by the actors of our senate. In some respects, indeed, the diplomatic bargaining which has been taking place off and on during the past two years regarding these small islands reminds the Boston Globe of the material facts in the lives of Napoleon and Josephine; still, they form such interesting topics for students of times and morals that they are difficult to drop. Now, however, for moderns there's the psychological aspect of the relations of the two to be studied, and there's a deal to be said about that.

PANAMA IS FAVORED.

Arthur P. Davis, hydrographer for the isthmian canal commission, has an article in the Forum in which he has laid out a good case for the Panama route in comparison with the Nicaraguan project. He figures out that the portion of the Panama canal which has been constructed is worth $25,000,000 to the United States government, basing the calculation upon estimates of $24,000,000 as the cost of a canal on the Nicaraguan route. Since the commission has made its estimate at over $200,000,000 the same calculation would add about $65,000,000 to the value of Panama.

It is generally conceded that about Panama people have expended about $60,000,000 in actual construction. The subscriptions to the old company were practically $200,000,000, of which about one-fifth went into construction, the remainder into jobbery. The new Panama company has spent $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 in prosecuting the work. By the calculations of Mr. Davis the United States could afford to pay the Panama company a profit over its actual investment and still have an advantage of $20,000,000 over the Nicaraguan project. But it remains to be seen whether other members of the commission base their opinions upon identical data. There is no good reason why this country should throw away $20,000,000 or more on the Nicaraguan route if the Panama canal can be acquired and completed for that much less than the cost of the Nicaraguan waterway.

THE DANISH ISLANDS.

The rumor that this country may purchase the Danish West Indies has been revived during the past few weeks. The story has been denied, but subsequently word came from Denmark that negotiations were actually in progress and that a certain sum had been stated by the American minister there as the highest price the United States would pay. Consequently there may be negotiations going on under the direction of Secretary Hay. It is doubtful, however, if the purchase will be consummated.

Mindful of the embarrassing state of affairs which came about when our national senate curtly refused to ratify the treaty of purchase negotiated with Denmark more than a generation ago by Secretary Seward, both that kingdom and this republic have conducted the latter day negotiations for the transfer of the Danish Antilles to the American flag with exceeding caution. It is not remarkable when one bears in mind what a number of high expectations and elaborate plans on both sides of the Atlantic were used by the actors of our senate. In some respects, indeed, the diplomatic bargaining which has been taking place off and on during the past two years regarding these small islands reminds the Boston Globe of the material facts in the lives of Napoleon and Josephine; still, they form such interesting topics for students of times and morals that they are difficult to drop. Now, however, for moderns there's the psychological aspect of the relations of the two to be studied, and there's a deal to be said about that.

The report has been given wide circulation that the national census of 1900 will show that the center of population is moving eastward.

This would seem to be a reversal of the theory that "westward the star of empire takes its way." However, this report may bear the tests of facts. It is certain that the Eastern cities have grown faster than the Western in the last ten years. It does not necessarily follow, of course, that the center of gravity of the nation has been stayed in its Western course and is returning East. While the growth of the Eastern cities has been rapid during the past decade the population in the country districts in the East has not kept pace with the growth of Western farming communities. The question of the center of population is a very interesting one. For many lines of business it is perhaps of little value. But the fact that Chicago, New York and Boston are north of the center of population is interesting, and the number of forces pulling upon the center of gravity indicate quite largely the drift of continental development. That the center of population, however, will move East again even during the twentieth century is scarcely to be anticipated.

PRESIDENT GRETSINGER.

The Herald extends congratulations to President J. L. Gretsinger, of the Duluth and Iron Range on his election to the presidency of the Minnesota Iron company. He will now be the chief executive officer of both these great allied corporations and at once becomes the most prominent figure in the iron mining and ore transportation world. His selection as the successor of Mr. Bacon at the head of the Minnesota Iron company is a fitting recognition of his ability and faithful services as an eminent officer of the railroad company. Mr. Gretsinger is a splendid example of the self-made man. Starting as a fireman on the Erie road over thirty years ago he has advanced steadily in the railroad service, serving in almost every capacity in the operating department and also becoming an expert telegraph operator, a knowledge which he frequently finds it convenient to exercise at the present time. Mr. Gretsinger became connected with the Duluth and Iron Range road in 1888 as master mechanic. In 1890 he was made superintendent, and two years subsequently became general manager and later in the same year was elected president of the road. His latest promotion will be highly pleasing to the employees of the road, with whom he has always been very popular.

Mr. Gretsinger's multitude of friends in Duluth and elsewhere have been hastening to congratulate him since the news came that he is to be the head of the iron company as well as direct the business of the railroad. The stockholders of the Minnesota Iron company can feel confident that their interests will be well looked after under his direction.

ONE ON NELSON.

Campaign Story in Which the Minnesota Senator Is the Star.

Washington politicians are smiling at a story in which several Western senators figured conspicuously. One day recently Senator Carter of Montana was talking with a number of friends in his committee room when they suddenly arose and, in gleeful tones, sang these words:

"The Irish and the Dutch—
They don't amount to much.
Then hurrah for the Scandinavian."

Senator Carter and his friends then laughed in chorus. The music and the words recalled the campaign trip of Theodore Roosevelt through the Northwest. Senator Carter was in the party, and so was Senator Nelson of Minnesota, who is a Norwegian by birth. He is a delightful companion, full of good stories, thoughtful and courteous, and his sense, without such a favorite on the trip that Senator Carter was inspired to compose the expressive, if not elegant, verse.

Carter's ancestors were Irish and Roosevelt, of course, Swedish. In his Dutch descent, but according to the verse—

"The Irish and the Dutch—
They don't amount to much."

And so, all through the Northwestern tour, the Roosevelt party hurrahed for the Scandinavian, with the accent on the "and." Sometimes the jolly editor would say "Scandinavian," but that was when they felt particularly good after a hard day's work.

Some of these days Senator Carter is going to return to his home in Sweden. He thinks it ought to be preserved for the delight of future generations.

P. S.
I, Henry C. Hansbrough, senator from North Dakota, being duly sworn, do hereby depose that the above is a true and correct copy of the original as shown to me by the author of the famous lines beginning:

"The Irish and the Dutch—
They don't amount to much."

The verse was repeated to me at a town in North Dakota by a Norwegian, and I can give the name of the house if anybody wants to hear me.

H. C. HANSBROUGH.
Talking about Senator Hansbrough, a good story is told by Senator Heitfeldt of Idaho. During the campaign he heard that Hansbrough was scheduled to speak in three little towns in Northern Idaho, which were populated by Swedes. He wondered why his colleague had been sent into that particular region, and so he took a train and went up to hear him speak. The first thing that met his eye as he alighted at the depot was a huge poster with these words:

SENATOR HANSBROUGH.
The Eldest Son of the Father.
Will Address the People, etc., etc.

"Swedish orator!" said Heitfeldt to himself. "Hansbrough doesn't know a word of Swedish. What sort of a name is this?"

Investigation showed that the poster, as he had originally printed, bore the name of Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota. Senator Nelson was taken sick, and for some other reason could not keep the appointment, and Mr. Hansbrough was substituted. His name was mistaken for Nelson's, but the eloquent Swedish orator was allowed to remain.

SURFET OF EGGS.
Missouri Man Fails to Eat Three Dozen on a Wager.

Poulter Bird, Mo., Jan. 2.—All records of egg-eating were probably broken by a man who ate three dozen eggs at one sitting. The man, who is a resident of this city, was wagered $1 that he could eat three dozen eggs at one sitting. He did it, and consumed thirty-three eggs in rapid succession, but failed on the thirty-fourth. He was removed from the table, dazedly sick, but he will probably recover.

URGENT HIGHER WAGES.
St. Paul, Jan. 3.—In his biennial report to the governor, Commissioner J. M. Bowler, of the state dairy and food department, recommends that the legislature raise the salary of $1800 paid the head of that department, to $2500 a year. He recommends advancing the salaries of the assistant commissioner and chemist, who receives $1000 a month, to $1500. He recommends an increase in the annual appropriation for the enforcement of the laws to $20,000, twice the present figure.

THE CITY FINANCES

Opens New Year With Less Than $10,000 In Orders Outstanding.

CASH IN EVERY FUND

Money on Hand to Pay All—Cash Balances Nearly $200,000.

Financially, the city of Duluth begins the new year closer to that long anticipated cash basis than ever before. The monthly statement of the city comptroller shows that there is but $357.44 in outstanding orders as compared with $13,981.87 outstanding less than a year ago.

The monthly statement of City Treasurer, Voss shows an actual cash balance of $193,315.51. Every one of the seventeen funds shows a balance, and both reports show that during the past twelve months the tendency of municipal affairs in every department has been toward economy and retrenchment.

The treasurer's monthly report is as follows:

NEW CARS ARE HERE

First Lot of the Big Double Truck Cars Reaches Duluth.

NOT FOR SIX WEEKS

Will Be In Use About February 15—Interstate Line First, Then Lakeside.

Six of the double truck cars that are to be put in use by the Duluth-Superior Traction company arrived in the city over the Northern Pacific road yesterday afternoon, and this afternoon were switched on to the Ontario spur of the Northern Pacific at Thirty-sixth avenue, nine west, close to the west end of the viaduct over the tracks. There are six more cars, making twelve in all, to come, and these are being loaded at Minneapolis at the present time. The bodies of the cars came up on flat cars, the trucks being expedited later. The cars are being loaded on to special trucks on a track alongside the flat cars and constructed by the street car company this morning. The car bodies will be taken to the Twenty-sixth avenue west car barns, and there put on the trucks.

The new cars are really new in so far as it is their first appearance here, for they have been in use on the interstate service of St. Paul and Minneapolis, but are re-fitted, and they have the appearance of new cars. They are about three feet in length, with cane bottom seats, arranged crossways with center aisle for about three-fourths of the distance. For the remaining distance the seats are arranged on the sides as in the cars now in use on the lines here. Each seat is capable of holding two persons, and has electric push, with which the passenger signals the motorman when a stop is desired. The cars are long, high and heavy, and look much more like the coaches in use on the railroads than for street car service. Entrance is made at the rear end, as in those now used here, but every car has a door at the front, the motorman closes whenever he starts the car. By this means no passenger can get on the car when it is running, reducing the possibility of injury. The cars are electric lighted, with hot air heat, the heat being given out much more equally through the car than the old method of stoves. In the new cars the motorman will ride alone, and the switch will be at the rear of the car, and can have the lights turned on and off from the car. Though nothing has been said as to the accommodation of the motorman, it is believed that he will ride on the rear end, as in the Twin Cities.

Manager Warren said this noon that it was doubtful if any of the new cars would be put in use before the expiration of the lease on the old cars, but he said he would make every effort to get the new cars into service as soon as possible. He said that the new cars are being loaded on to special trucks on a track alongside the flat cars and constructed by the street car company this morning. The car bodies will be taken to the Twenty-sixth avenue west car barns, and there put on the trucks.

FIRE LOSSES.

Chief Black's Statement of Insurance and Damage During the Year.

Actual fire losses in Duluth during the past year amounted to $28,576 and the insurance was $1,162,959 worth of insurance. The total loss on buildings was $15,262 and on contents of buildings burned $10,314. Insurance was $1,144,374 in excess of the losses.

Chief Black of the fire department has prepared an interesting report of the year's fire losses on all buildings and contents, together with insurance and insurance adjustments. This report is more complete than the one published Tuesday. The monthly losses by fire during the year were as follows:

On Buildings. On Contents.
January. $125.00 1,329.00
February. 2,250.00 1,329.00
March. 4,900.00 1,329.00

HEART FAILURE.

John Gordon, Vessel Man, Receives Eternal Summons at Buffalo.

Daniel Christy, of this city, received a telegram this morning from P. P. Gordon of Buffalo, N. Y., notifying him of the death of John Gordon, his father, at that city, this morning. Heart failure was the cause. The funeral will take place at that city on Monday.

John Gordon was well known to Duluth people, for he made his residence here for many years. He was born in 1812, as agent for Ward's line of Detroit, and he continued in that capacity until 1875. The Lake Superior Traction company was then formed, and he took the agency of that holding it until April, 1880, when he became agent for the Anchor line here. He continued in that position until about 1885, when he became general manager of the Northern Steamship company, which J. J. Hill then started. During his connection with that company the fleet of six boats, then the finest on the lakes, came out. He continued in that position until about 1888. At the time of his death he was planning a passenger line from Buffalo to Chicago.

Few men on the lakes have been better known than was John Gordon, for he has lived a life of business and of public life. He leaves three sons, Frank P. Gordon and Robert Gordon, of Buffalo, and John Gordon, of Vancouver.

It is not alone the large number of copies issued that makes

The Evening Herald invaluable to advertisers. The quality of its circulation—the fact that it is read by the people whom the merchant desires to reach—must have its share of credit for the remarkable results produced.

Marcius W. Bates Makes Response In an Iron Lad Sull.

Marcius W. Bates has filed an answer in the case of F. S. Kosmerl and others against F. S. Snively, administrator of the estate of Johann Mueller and others, involving the title to some valuable iron lands in Duluth.

Manager Warren said this noon that it was doubtful if any of the new cars would be put in use before the expiration of the lease on the old cars, but he said he would make every effort to get the new cars into service as soon as possible. He said that the new cars are being loaded on to special trucks on a track alongside the flat cars and constructed by the street car company this morning. The car bodies will be taken to the Twenty-sixth avenue west car barns, and there put on the trucks.

THE MATCH FACTORY

Fifty Million Matches a Day to Be Capacity of Duluth Plant.

Will Employ Many Will Take In a Log and Turn It Out In Matches.

L. E. Boring, of Grand Rapids, president of the Duluth Match company, arrived in the city yesterday and will be here for several days. The company has definitely decided on the Marquette site for its location and in taking it secures a very fine home. There are five match factories in the country that will be so well situated as this with reference to the buildings. The ground aggregates about six acres and about one-third of this space is occupied by the buildings. The impression which the people have is that the Marquette plant is practically dismantled, and everything of much use is gone, is in the morning. The engines, boilers, shafting, electric plant, etc., all remain just as they were. All that has been removed is the lumber and some light machinery connected with the plant. The plant is a fine and complete one, and only about eight years old. The shape in which it is left is the excellent and it is ready for the new company to get right in with very little preliminary work.

The announcement that a large match factory will be established in Duluth has probably indicated to very few people just what it means, for the reason that few people probably know the extent of such a concern. A match is such a small thing that the possibility of making money from it is not generally appreciated, and the extensive machinery employed does not occur to the average individual.

The plant which is to be established in Duluth will manufacture 50,000,000 matches a day. These will be of twenty different kinds. The factory will take a log in and will turn it out in the form of matches. The log which many have that refuse will be used in sawmills will be used and about 9000 feet of log will be required to drive the plant. It will take about 250 horse power, and this will be supplied by the Corlies electric plant which is in place in the works. The machinery is nearly all imported.

The plant when started will employ more than 300 people.

West Duluth

The announcement, from what appears to be reliable sources, that the match factory is an assured thing and will be located in the Marinette works, is hailed as great news for the people of West Duluth. While West Duluth is the scene of the employment of a great deal of labor during the months that the sawmills are running, there is practically no employment of labor in this section of the city during the winter months, other than a small force of men at the mills, but not to operate. With an idle blast furnace, malleable iron plant shut down and car works inoperative for years, it is little wonder that the people of this part of the city have cause to feel pleased to know that a plant that will employ over 200 employees is to be started.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETS.

The West Duluth Democratic club held a meeting last night in the building at the rear of the Phillips hotel. There was a large attendance of the Democrats of the two wards. The meeting last night was the annual meeting of the club and the following officers were elected: President, S. C. Murphy; secretary, Adolph Anderson; treasurer, Frank Bradley. Mr. Murphy has filled the office of president very satisfactorily for the past year and was re-elected. After the election there was a general discussion of the aldermanic campaign, and speeches were made by a number of the club, including Frank Wade, W. E. Kern, David Sang and the newly-elected officers. The club will hold regular weekly meetings after this week. The meetings will be held in the hall on Saturday nights.

VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY.

The case against Samuel Yablonsky, of New Duluth, for selling liquor to a minor, was given a jury trial before Judge Stone yesterday afternoon, and after being out about three hours brought in a verdict of not guilty. The testimony was to the effect that James J. Smith, the complaining witness, had often bought drinks for his son in the saloon and that the prosecution was brought about on his behalf to get even with the saloon man on a personal matter.

REDMEN INSTALL OFFICERS.

Installation of the newly-elected officers of the Duluth Indian Order of Redmen was held in the Great Eastern hall last night and Grand Senior Sagamore, H. P. Plancher, the installing officer. The following were installed: Jim's Wilson, prophet; W. E. Anderson, sagamore; J. J. Plancher, second sagamore; T. J. Wilson, junior sagamore; W. E. Day, keeper of records; T. J. Mulligan, keeper of stamps; T. J. Mayo, trustee for eighteen months; and Dr. Graham, physician for one great moon. The installation, which was private, was followed by a social.

A NEW INDUSTRY.

The Linken Xcelty company, which was recently incorporated, has been Smith, A. W. Lindgren and William A. Kaiser, bids fair to become a profitable industry of this metropolis. The new company is capitalized at $500 and will operate a light machine shop on Central avenue north of Kansas, the building recently occupied by a commission firm. Mr. Lindgren is setting up a complete set of tools and will be the manager. The new company has two patented articles to manufacture, the street railway transfer clock, and an ore lock. During the summer season of ice skating will also form an important feature of the work. Mr. Lindgren, the manager, has been employed in bicycle repairing for some time and is a very energetic young man.

WEST DULUTH BURGLES.

Dr. Guy Pake, of West Superior, was in West Duluth yesterday to visit his parents.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Method is reported quite sick. Ernest Frothington was unable to return to St. John's college this week. He is recovering from an attack of the gastritis.

The Kitchi Gannal lodge, K. of D., at a meeting last night decided to have a public installation of officers in the Great Eastern hall on next Thursday evening. Invitations have been extended to the lodge at Duluth, Port Huron and New Duluth. A musical and literary program will be given, for which a dance. Dr. Keyes, district deputy grand chieftain, will be the installing officer.

Elmer E. Davis has returned to spend the winter in West Duluth.

Cards are out for the marriage on the evening of Jan. 16, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dwight Bell, of Fifty-second street, west of Miss Florence Ellen Bell, to Emil Julius Zaur, both well known and popular young people of West Duluth. Mr. and Mrs. Zaur will be at home at 1316 Wisconsin street after March 1.

The funeral of Peter Mayhew will be held from the St. James church at 5 o'clock tomorrow morning. The Mass, of which the deceased was a member, will attend the funeral.

Miss Grace Kender and Miss Schinath will leave tomorrow for a visit in Ashland. Miss Anna Laughney will take Miss Kender's place at the Duluth central at the telephone office during the latter's absence.

The West Duluth Republican club will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting at Stewart's hall tomorrow night.

Marjorie Eugenia, aged 77 years, of 225 Sixty-second avenue west, died this morning. The funeral will be held from the Swedish Lutheran church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The deceased leaves several children.

A New Year's marriage occurred at the home of the groom's father, in Duluth on Tuesday. The contracting parties were Miss Guss Tremblay and George C. Joanne. Rev. S. A. Jamieson performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Edith R. Haskins, wife of E. F. Haskins, died at the Red Cross hospital on Wednesday. The remains were shipped yesterday to Augusta, Wis., where interment will be made.

Miss Jennie Merritt, of Onondaga, gave a very enjoyable New Year's party on Tuesday night. About thirty of her young friends attended. Refreshments were served.

Frank Connors has gone to Bivalvik. Charles Boerner burned his hand severely the first of this week in putting out a fire that started in his desk.

Robert McKeever, of Proctorville, has recovered from an attack of the grip. Mrs. G. W. Thompson and son Myrt have visited in Proctorville this week. Mrs. William Chapman, of Proctorville, visited relatives here this week.

Charges By Pingree Against Warden of the Marquette State Prison.

Marquette—One of ex-Governor Pingree's parting shots comes right home to Marquette. In his message to the state legislature he prefers charges of incompetence, misfeasance, in office, breeding bloodhounds, belching fumes and pigeons, and state expense for his own personal profit, printing pamphlets and books, one known as "Freedom's glories," at the state expense, against Warden Freeman of the Marquette branch state prison. He further charges that the prisoners at this institution are treated harshly and that they have no exercise. The ex-governor recommends that the prison be abolished, and that the building be converted into a asylum for the insane. He says that the cells are not fit for cows and horses. Warden Freeman, when informed of these charges against him, was untrue. He sought bloodhounds with his own money, to prevent prisoners escaping in the forest of this peninsula. I own them now, by their use I have saved the state at least $800 a year, and with them I have prevented intended escapes. I have sold a number of their young. No guilt has come to me from any prisoner escape." Mr. Freeman will court an investigation.

Ispsening—Ed Murray, the Main street confectioner, and Mrs. M. J. Taylor, the milliner, were the principal sufferers in a hot blaze which broke out suddenly about 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. The flames had their origin in Mr. Murray's store. A lamp exploded, its oil catching fire. Near it was a gas pipe, which burst at a large opening, time, pouring forth a large volume of gas, which was at once ignited, and which quickly spread the fire to the woodwork and furnishings. The blaze was confined to the main block. The loss is estimated at $200, divided as follows: Train block, $800, covered by insurance; Ed Murray's stock and furniture, $100, covered by insurance; Mrs. Taylor's stock and furniture, $100, covered by insurance. The damage in Mrs. Taylor's store was mostly covered by water.

At Mr. Vanhalla, of this city, received word from Lansing that he had been appointed to a position in the auditor general's office, and requesting him to go to Lansing at once to enter on his duties. Mr. Vanhalla left at once for the state capital. The salary is $1000 a year.

Nogans—From now until school closes in June members of the school board will be busily engaged in soliciting funds for a manual training school, which will be opened in September, provided sufficient money is subscribed to enable the board to establish it. The late Mr. Krogman had formulated plans for such a school. He was working on these when his untimely death occurred, but they will be carried out by his successor, Mr. Greening, and as a result Nogans will have a manual training school.

The first move made by the deceased superintendent was to get donations from the large mining corporations operating in this vicinity. The Oliver Iron Mining company, through its president, H. J. Johnston, contributed $200 to the fund.

R. O. Greening returned Tuesday night from Chicago, where he went to secure a man to succeed him as principal of the high school. The person employed is G. G. Prohaska, of Chicago, a graduate of the Northwestern university. Until his resignation of the position to accept that tendered to him by Mr. Greening he was instructor in the Illinois university.

At half past six o'clock Monday night, the last day of the century, Elizabeth, daughter of Capt. Dick Roberts of this city, was united in marriage to Fred Anthony, also of Nogans. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, and was solemnized by the Rev. Wilcox of the Methodist church.

The bride was attended by Miss Symonds, and James Roberts acted as best man.

Iron Mountain—Some people here are mourning the disappearance of a young lady look agent, of professional appearance. She was worked into this city a few weeks ago, and being a fair taker, and a very fair looking, she sold encyclopedias, and books, and her big blue eyes were limpid with what appeared to be the influence of youth, and they seemed to exercise a certain hypnotic influence over all with whom she came in contact. She contracted bills at boarding and business houses, but it has yet to appear that she settled any single account. She operated with such an easy grace, that none of her creditors realized the game she was playing and she slipped away, as she had arranged, quietly and unannounced.

Mrs. Jessie Moss of Marquette and Mrs. Charles Hanson of Iron Mountain, Mich., have started personal injury suits for $1500 and $2000 respectively against the Milwaukee road. A baggage in which they were driving at Iron Mountain was returned and both were badly injured. It is claimed that the baggage was asleep and no claims were filed from the claim, which was backing over the crossing.

Haughton—Mrs. James Cron, wife of the drayman and living with her husband at the home of his parents in one of the Shadown City tenements, died last night of pneumonia, after a short illness, and was buried at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by taking casket and aid. The condition of O. D. Tenth, superintendent of the Sturgeon River Lumber company's mills at Chassell, is reported to be much more than heretofore. The recovery is very doubtful.

Col. H. H. Richardson has returned from Nyott Point, R. I., where he was called several weeks ago to attend the funeral of his father. It is understood that County Treasurer W. Frank James, who took his office on Tuesday, will retain M. M. Foley as his deputy. Mr. Foley served throughout the administration of Rudolph J. Huns in the treasurer's office.

Minister Charles Hendrickson, of the Hamilton Light Infantry, indoor base ball team has arranged for a game between his team and the Calumet Light Guard team to be played at the Army opera house in this city, Wednesday evening, Jan. 9. This will be the first public match of indoor baseball ever played in the copper country, and it is expected to attract a large crowd of spectators.

A PROMINENT CHICAGO WOMAN SPEAKS.

Professor Rosa Tyler, of Chicago, vice president Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies, but I seemed to grow worse, and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale at Boyce's Drug store.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the W.C.O.P., and especially to the officers and members of Georgianians court, No. 22, of which my late dear wife was a member, for the prompt payment of benefit claim to myself and children.

MAKING THE SLATE

Politicians Not Greatly Stirred Up Over Election Close at Hand.

SOME POSSIBILITIES

Tickets as They Are Made Up By Forecasters Just Now.

With less than a week to the Democratic city convention, and about a month to the others, instead of a bustling political pot there is scarcely a bubble. Even for an off year following a presidential election, municipal politics are exceedingly quiet.

About the only thing in the way of a political gossip has sprung yesterday afternoon by some friends, alias enemies, of a well known lawyer. He has been mentioned several times as a possibility for the municipal judgeship, and knowing that it annoyed him greatly, the men arranged to call him at frequent intervals and ask if the street report that he had come out as an avowed candidate were true.

Along about the middle of the afternoon the attorney had partly twisted the phone off the hook, and was making an effort to throw the receiver through the transmitter, when the committee of the reporters called to notify him that it was a joke.

About the only thing absolutely new was the following slate, which was circulated through the city hall yesterday. It is incomplete, but being several new candidates who are said to have been fully decided on. This slate is:

Municipal judge—N. A. Garhart, Republican; Democrat, C. W. Stinson.

Comptroller—W. S. McCormick, Republican; R. S. Munger, Democrat; if he can possibly be induced to run, which is very doubtful.

Treasurer—No Republican mentioned. Fred Voss, a Democratic certainty.

ALDERMEN.

First ward—J. M. Marcy, Republican; O. H. Clarke, Democrat.

Second ward—George Fischer, Republican; J. R. Caroy, Democrat.

Third ward—Joseph Lloyd or C. A. Krause, Republican; J. R. Bennett or Joseph Gibson, Democrat.

Fourth ward—No Republican mentioned. Porter J. Noy, state of Democratic nomination.

Fifth ward—Harvey A. Wing, Republican; no formal nomination.

Sixth ward—L. M. Frazier or J. W. Allen, Republican; Frank Schaffer, Democrat.

Seventh ward—L. A. Barnes, Republican; Frank W. Miller, Democrat.

Eighth ward—Edward Swenson, Republican; W. E. Kern, Democrat.

Ninth ward—No formal nomination.

Tenth ward—No formal nomination.

HE'S DEAD AGAIN

Cat-Lived Aguinado Is Reported Killed Once More.

NEWS BY FILIPINOS

Who Are In Care of President Wheeler of California.

New York, Jan. 4.—Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the university of California, who is here, has received information from secret sources in the Philippines to the effect that Aguinado is dead, and that his death occurred no less than six weeks ago. The news has been kept secret by Aguinado's followers for the purpose of prolonging the rebellion.

President Wheeler obtained this through several Filipino children who have been placed in his care by their parents. Two are the sons of Buenavista, a wealthy citizen of Manila, who before the advent of the Americans in the Philippines had been an active leader of rebellion against the Spanish. President Wheeler also has in his charge the children of Midel, the governor of Mindanao, and several other boys, whose parents are of the wealthy class.

In speaking of the reported death of the chief insurrectionist, President Wheeler said:

"These boys of mine, as I may call them, receive frequent communications from their parents and friends at home. The information which was obtained concerning the death of Aguinado, I understand, came from secret and trustworthy sources and is probably true."

CAUCUS ON SENATOR

One to Be Held By Republicans on Next Tuesday Evening.

TO RE-ELECT NELSON

No Other Business to Come Up Specifically Stated In Call.

St. Paul, Jan. 4.—Legislative caucuses have been arranged for the next sessions, except the short term senatorship. Senator Myran started a call for a caucus on the successorship to Senator Nelson, on Tuesday evening, the day the legislature assembled. This call was readily signed, for it provided specifically that the only business would be the long term, and that nothing should be done about the short term.

At the start there was a move by the Evans people to have the short term taken up immediately after Nelson had been endorsed for the other, for it was opposed by the Nelson backers from his home district, and by the Clapp and Tawney people as well.

The meeting will be held in the representatives' hall.

Caucuses to decide the organization of each house will be held Monday night in the capitol. In both houses the officers are practically selected in advance, except the chaplains of both houses, and the reading clerk of the house, and these places may be left open for a present.

It was reported with positiveness last night that an attempt would be made to stampede the Third district to Evans today on the same line as was attempted with the First and Second districts last week.

Representatives Barreau and Kelly, and Senators Sviright and Dickey were the only Third district men in town. It is none of their kind anything of the proposition. Mr. Barreau was as positive as ever for Tams Bixby.

In this connection a telegram which Marshall Grimshaw, one of the Evans backers, said that he had received yesterday, has some interesting information. It stated that he had been sent a wire announcing that Tams Bixby would not be a candidate.

The anti-Evans people smell a rat in all this telegraphing, and insisted that there was not a word of truth in the Third district for Evans on the plea that the district had no candidate, and would better get about its business. It is asserted most positively, is the anti-Evans people.

A number of Third district members expected in the city today, while Evans is not due till Saturday, and plan to stay till Saturday.

The Clapp and Tawney people are much encouraged over what they insist is the beginning of the breakaway of recent acquisitions to the Evans camp.

It was asserted that the Second district members who went to Evans last Friday had become more than indifferent to Evans now. They were claimed to be distinctly hostile, and in fact charged at being called into support of Evans on the band-wagon cry. They returned about the same time, and found themselves almost its only occupants. Now they are, with the single exception of Dan Sviright, who is opposed to Evans than they were in favor of him a week ago. Sheriff's attitude is explained on the ground that he was for Evans before the eleven members met.

Senator Myran is also set down as opposed to Evans, but the senator denied the story. He was one of the first country members to denounce Evans, and it is said that he did so on the ground that he was not even to rent headquarters with. Since then it had grown apparent to him that the Evans people were not so much in circulation, and were not at all troubled with a financial stringency.

A Third district member gave little encouragement to Evans when he said that the district would be divided between Clapp and Tawney in case that district were out of the way. Further, he assigned as a reason that the members were disgusted with the Evans camp, trying to bluff the other candidates off the stage.

Congressman Tawney will leave for Washington some time early next week. He received the following telegram from Congressman Littlefield, of Maine:

"When will you return to Washington? Apportionment bill may be reached at any time. Wire."

Mr. Tawney wired at once to Chairman Hopkins of the reapportionment committee asking more definite information about the vote on the bill. That may not come up at once, as possibly two or three days may be required for debate.

Mr. Littlefield, being a Maine representative, is with the Minnesota delegation. Representative A. P. Ferris admitted yesterday that he was for Clapp. The Clapp supporters have hopes of two more votes from Representative Wells of Breckinridge and Senator Clifton. Clapp men were with the Evans camp yesterday. The Ferris Falls Clapp element is helping this along.

SHOT DOWN.

John Swanson Was Killed By Guard at Camp Near Sparta.

Sparta, Minn., Jan. 4.—John Swanson is the name of the lumberman who was shot and instantly killed Wednesday afternoon while attempting to escape from a small pox in the Northern Lumber company camp three miles from his place. Swanson's home is supposed to be in the city of Minneapolis. He was employed at the camp, in which are employed about 20 men and the foreman at once armed himself with a rifle and fired at Swanson. He was killed before he could get to his feet. The cause of the shooting was the fact that Swanson was ill and was being nursed by one of the men. The foreman, who is a native of the state, the lumberman have been ill with small pox since Tuesday. He was taken to the camp and placed in quarantine, which meant the loss of his wages during the time they were away. Swanson was the hardest worker on the camp, and the foreman, who is a native of the state, the lumberman have been ill with small pox since Tuesday. He was taken to the camp and placed in quarantine, which meant the loss of his wages during the time they were away.

DEMAND GOOD.

Employment Agencies Here and at Superior Have Many Orders.

The employment agencies on both sides of the bay report a heavy demand for men for the woods since Tuesday. Since the present cold snap logging operations are said to be opening up more extensively and they have been looking for men for some weeks past. The only trouble seems to be the getting of men. During the holidays a large number of men came in but for the past few days there has been a steady stream out of the city at the rate of seventy-five to eighty a day, so that the supply is very much depleted. Some of the orders run as high as fifty and no men and it is practically impossible to fill them at that figure. The result has been to strengthen wages and there is little prospect of a cut from now on until spring. Some of the loggers say that there has been no drop in wages at all since the opening of the season. There is not a swamp in the district that is frozen over solid enough now to permit the heaviest of teaming, and the loggers report enough snow in camps for all purposes. Little complaint is being made on the part of contractors about the inability of the men sent out this winter. The higher wage market has proved to be the best remedy for the logging industry.

OUR FIRE LOSS.

Greater Than In Past Years—A Fearful Bill.

New York, Jan. 4.—Fire underwriters suffered terribly during 1900. The aggregate fire loss of the United States and Canada was $123,922,250. The total loss for 1898 was $118,659,200, and for 1899, $126,755,200.

FLOW COMBINE.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—The combination of plow companies, of which there have been rumors for two or three days, was held off by the plow companies. The combination of $65,000,000.

DRANK REAL POISON.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 4.—Four prominent farmers of Sevier county are dead as the result of drinking wood alcohol at a political gathering. The deceased were W. C. Bailey, Peter Hays, Alfred John and James Dickey, of Cave Creek. Others who drank of the same liquor are seriously ill, several at the point of death.

OIL INSPECTOR.

Editor Wheelock of the Pioneer Press is Said to Be Slated.

St. Paul, Jan. 4.—The presence at the Merchants' hotel yesterday afternoon of Capt. Van Sant and his secretary, "Bob" Jamison, excited the office-seekers. One of them was informed by the governor-elect that something which happened yesterday morning had about knocked out a slate of appointees for the big places practically agreed upon the previous night.

With scarcely any reserve it may be stated that Jack O'Donnell, of Minneapolis, is to be labor commissioner.

It is pretty certain that Editor J. A. Wheelock of the St. Paul Pioneer Press can be oil inspector if he will accept the office, which he will do unless he feels that the legislature is determined to put it on a salary basis.

It looks as if George Matchan, of Minneapolis, is pretty close to appointment as surveyor general in the Minneapolis district.

The tip in the hotel lobbies is that Hubbard, of Red Wing, is the man to CHAFFEE AS GUARD.

His Troops Take No Part In Looting Expeditions In China.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Gen. Chaffee has cleared himself of any suspicion of participating in any of the looting expeditions which are said in some quarters to be going on in China, under the disguise of punitive expeditions.

His report of the conditions under which he took his last excursion from Peking has been received at the war department by cable from Peking. The press reports stating that the American troops in Peking, which were already designated as the legion guards, and as such were to have no part in ordinary military operations, had gone out into the country to co-operate with a German expeditionary force. Gen. Chaffee has explained as follows:

"Col. Theodore J. Wint returned Christmas simply to verify report that Christians had been murdered, and secure the arrest of guilty parties if

Talk on Dinner Gowns

Those For This Season Are Remarkable For Beautiful Brilliance, For Artistic Treatment and For Expense.
ARE OF WONDERFUL GOODS

"Where is the man who can live without dining?" asks the poet.

He might, with equal propriety, make the same query regarding the woman.

The dinner gown that is being rapidly turned out for the feminine persuasion would indicate that dining played an important part in her general plans, and that the winter campaign includes many an already planned fest.

A dinner gown may consist of a strip of lace wound round the shoulders and caught with a flower upon the bust, below which long stoles of lace play a charitable part toward the feet. The body, over which the lace was worn.
The lace, draped simply with the point of lace, well brought down and placed, would pass muster anywhere. Above this simple twist of lace the dinner gown would rise supreme with snowy formerly the modest thread lay. No woman of India ever handled the shining bits more dexterously, nor did a lady of Persia ever stitch them more cleverly nor with more gaily colored silks.

The Russian woman who blouses everything, and trusts to her leanness, to carry off the blouse, has consented to the use of gold and tinsel upon her garments; and so we have the Russian blouse, the Russian house coat and the Russian collar, all in dinner stuffs and all elaborately touched with tinsel.

The dinner gown of the season, those that come from abroad and are called "models," are of wonderful goods. They are of crystallized chiffon, or of golden silk, or of tulle, or of lace. There are thousands exist for these delicate fabrics, many of them so French that they will not care to be burdened with them.
But, when you have looked at them all and felt them, you will say that they truly resemble the favorites of former ventional floral design thrown upon it in the softest tones generally seen on bustle. With some wonderful combination of point and silk stitching an effect of old tapestry is arrived at that is absolutely charming and very striking. The skirt of this dress is edged with fur, and the whole "ensemble" is a model to a degree.

Hats and toques are alike flat, somewhat broad, and in general tone inclined to be picturesque. A draped effect round crown and brim is apparent on most, the flat, plate-shaped toques being little more than a more or less artistically disposed piece of material.
Feathers and plumage are used, but the quite as numerous. Huge bunches are employed to lift the hat off the head at the side, and the material in the center of the crown, or to clasp feathers together; some are thrust right through a slit in the brim, and others are laid across the top of the head and fastened with a very neat and careful coiffure.

PRESIDENT LIKES GOODNOW.

Will Reappoint Him When His Present Term Expires.

Washington, Jan. 4.—John Goodnow is expected to come straight to Washington, where he will remain for several days before returning to Minnesota. He will receive a very pleasant reception at the White House and at the state department.

Of all the American officers who have quitted duty so creditably in the eyes of this government as Mr. Good-now. So well did he please the president that that official sent him an autograph congratulating him.

Mr. Goodnow's record is in marked contrast with that of other civil officials with Asiatic assignments. He has not got rattled and sent unreliable news, nor could he be depended upon, and our negotiations were carried on with the greatest difficulty. Mr. Goodnow was as bitter against the Chinese that he was ready to place the Chinese in the hands of the Chinese or anybody else if he could only conceive some way to kill Chinamen. His fearful experiences had so embittered him that his judgment was absolutely unreliable.

Of course Mr. Goodnow did not have the fearful experience of Mr. Conger.
His judgment was sound, and according to the state department officials, he will have no difficulty in retaining his place. Mr. Goodnow will reappoint him at the expiration of his present term.

FIGHT AGAINST BACTERIA.

Great Northern to Adopt New Style of Sleeping Car.

St. Paul, Jan. 4.—The Great Northern railway company is constructing a new style of sleeping car, which, if it proves satisfactory, will be adopted on all the long lines.

The object aimed at in the new car is to do away with upholstering as far as possible and thus eliminate the danger of contagion through traveling in sleeping cars, which the best medical authorities in the country hold to be the greatest existing menace to public health.

The car that has been designed to do away with accumulations of bacteria is to be finished, as to seats, with rattan, but in a more luxurious style than any hitherto attempted. The seats are to be of rattan, with cushions of cloth, of which the covers will be changed every day. These covers will be put on the seats and cushions and will be changed every day. Every part of the car will be exposed as to render thorough cleansing possible every day.

The experiment is an important one in view of a late medical pronouncement at a meeting of the American Public Health association, held at Indianapolis.
At this gathering Professor S. H. Woodbridge, of Boston, declared that bacteria are everywhere, and that the necessity for reform in the construction and maintenance of sleeping cars, which are the most prolific sources of disease dissemination.

Dr. Bracken, of Minneapolis, said that in order to insure at least partial cessation of the sleeping car menace, sleeping cars as they are presently constructed are not safe. He called attention to the fact that the seats of sleeping cars are changed every day, and that the blankets used were only washed at very infrequent intervals, and that a person rolling them up in the berth after use and taking them down again might be a great help to the spread of disease.

In cases of tubercular infection the victim of disease is not only exposed to the bacteria, but the bacteria are introduced into the system by the use of the blankets. The doctor indicated that in such a contingency the use of the blanket without cleaning was not only repulsive but highly dangerous.

WANTS A NEW PRISON.

Warden Reeve Thinks Present Buildings Are Inadequate.

Stillwater, Minn., Jan. 4.—Warden
Reeve has decided to ask the legislature to build a new prison, and that the new legislature will be asked to make appropriations for a new prison and sheds.

The cell room is old-fashioned and too small and the shops are gradually decaying. Gen. Reeve is of the opinion that a new site should be selected, and will make a recommendation for an appropriation to the legislature.

SPICER-FANNING CO.,

The Northwest's Greatest Store.
1501 and 1507 Tower Avenue, West Superior, Wis.

All Inter-State Cars Stop at Our Doors.

We Are in Trouble!

Our lease on this store expires February 15th, 1901, and for the past month we have been trying to secure a renewal for three years more. This we have been unable to do. The Northern Trust Co., owners of the building, demand an increase in rent of six thousand dollars ($6,000.00) per year more than we have been paying. That we cannot pay and make a living. Our propositions to effect a settlement have all been rejected and

They have served us with a legal notice to vacate the store by February 15th.

We are figuring with several parties to put up a large store for us on Tower avenue between Ninth and Twelfth streets, but such a building cannot be made ready before May first and there isn't a vacant store building in town which would hold one-twentieth part of our stock, and we are in a peck of trouble and no mistake. We have about given up all hopes of being able to make any satisfactory arrangements with the owners of this building and we have decided to close out as much of our stock as we possibly can until we can see our way clear. To do this we commenced on Thursday, January 3rd, the Greatest Cut Price Sale the Northwest Ever Saw

Over $150,000.00 (one hundred and fifty thousand dollars) worth of goods will go on sale at reductions ranging from one-fourth to one-half less than our regular marked prices. There are a few things which we cannot sell at a cut price as we have contracts with the manufacturers not to sell at less than their prices, but these items are few and far between. Read the papers and you will realize what a great saving this sale will be to every man and woman at the head of the lakes.

This Sale Will Be for Cash Only! We shall refuse to charge goods to anyone at these prices and positively no goods will be sent on approval or exchanged during this sale. Plenty of extra salespeople to wait on you promptly. Doors open at 8 o'clock. Don't forget that you can save from 25c to 50c on the dollar on anything you want—and don't forget your pocketbook.

of the death resulted from catarrh of the bladder," says Dr. Wm. A. Sullivan, who divided the state in which over ten per cent of the colored people are afflicted by directly traceable to catarrh as the cause.

"It is an appalling state of affairs. This nation has got to confront the fact that catarrh has become a national curse. Catarrhal diseases threaten the life of every one-half of the people suffering from some form or degree of catarrh. Fifty thirty-five million people are personally interested in the discovery of a radical catarrh cure."

General Patton, who was at the letter written from Washington, D. C., says the following of Perma's use of catarrh:

"I have used Perma in my family and can cheerfully recommend it to anyone who wishes to cure himself of catarrh. I wish all persons who are afflicted with various debilitating ailments would know of it. I would advise them to try it, as it will afford the most beneficial consequences."—Dr. J. H. Wright, Baltimore, Md.

"I fully believe in the curative power of Perma."—John V. Wright, New York City.

A letter from Mrs. S.W. Young, a Washington, D. C., says:

"The scabbe toothed catarrh of the bladder is a disease which has been increasing from a cold, and I had feared with good reason."—Mrs. F. E. Warren, St. Louis, Mo.

"My mother-in-law, who was in command of Devoe's flag ship when at the destruction of the Spanish fleet at Manila, says of our remedy: Dr. Patton's Perma."

"At the solicitation of a friend I tried Perma, and soon truthfully found it cured me of my catarrh. It should be used in every household. After using it for a short period I feel like recommending it to everybody."—Mrs. R. Briggs, of Minneapolis, Minn.

in life without my profit. My catarrh was cured by the use of Pe-ru-na, and I can now do all kinds of work and am enabled to cure the same.

"I learned of the medicine, Peruna, through a medical exemplar. I am weary of making money and I have been well over three years since I was cured, and am enabling others to get rid of their catarrh."—Dr. J. H. Goss, of Louisiana.

Catarrh Is Found Everywhere.

The common definition of catarrh is a mucous inflammation of any mucous membrane. It is a general cold in the head, which if long continued often destroys the sense of smell and hearing, but there are many other forms of it, and even more serious, venereal, and even malignant, venereal and dangerous.

Catarrh of the throat and bronchial tubes, of the stomach and intestines, of the liver are almost as common as that of the nose. Catarrh of the eye is also a very usual catarrh and generally more difficult to cure.

Catarrh is undoubtedly a blood disease and can only be successfully eradicated by an internal treatment. Sprays, ointments, and other local remedies, by reaching the real seat of the disease, are concerned.

My advice catarrh suffers to use a new preparation, sold by druggists, called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because actual analysis has shown that they contain the highest and purest qualities of the highest value and an internal remedy, pleasant to take, and can be used as freely as required.

children as for adults. As an attorney and public speaker, who had been a catarrh sufferer for years:

"Every fall I would catch a cold which would settle in my head and throat and hang on all winter long and every winter seemed to get a little worse. I was continually clearing my throat and voice became affected to such an extent as to interfere with my public speaking.

"I tried lozenges and cheap cough cures but sometimes got relief, but only for a short time, until this winter when I tried one of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Cattarrh Tablets, through a newspaper advertisement. Two 50-cent boxes which I bought at my druggists, cleared my head and throat in fine shape and guard against a return of my old ailment. I keep a box of the tablets on hand and whenever I catch a little cold take a tablet or two and ward off any serious developments."

Quart's Cattarrh Tablets deserves to be the list as a household remedy, to check and break up coughs and colds. Because unlike many other cattarrh and cold cures these tablets contain no opiate, cocaine or any injurious drug.

Mr. acted as prompter. In P. Wilson, a Shapere and William Wilson looked over the floor in an admirable manner. A young woman was served at the table. The proceeds of the dance was used to help defray the expenses of the various entertainments which the Mission give to their members and friends.

G. Williams returned home Saturday evening from a business trip to Everett. Mark Pupie was down from Elly last Saturday.

Frank Finch returned Saturday night on a few days' visit in Everett.

Bert Burgess who has been in Butte, Idaho, the past two months, arrived home last night. John Mahady, who was a blimp in the war, was also here.

...ing over the death of his brother, was run down by a train a few weeks ago. The news unsettled John Elgason's mind so he shot himself about a o'clock yesterday morning in his cabin a few miles out of this city. Two passers-by found him just dying. A note written in Swedish said that as his brother, who was his best friend, was dead, he thought it best to also.

There has been the government service in the mine and says that he enjoys the work. The chief factor was a great favor from the state. He has been heard of in the past four years. The Auburn mine will be extended the winter by a new and deeper level. The steam shovel now in the bottom of the 23-foot pit will be lowered to the new level and mining will proceed by shovel at the bottom. The Oliver mine has closed down and the motives were taken to the Mountain House, where they will undergo repairs. They expect to open up in the spring with a large force. John W. of Champion, Mich., has been the president of the miners' union for the last year and mining has been at the bottom of the mine.

Previous to the fire the firemen received $5 per month. In September, the city began cutting expenses and voted for the firemen to pay the roll, but notified the chief or any of his men. Consequently the firemen claim back salary for the months of September, October and November. They claim that the city will not pay them until they are officially notified their pay has stopped.

and Rapids, Jan. 5.—The Minneapolis Tribune and Times last week each published a wholly untrue report of an epidemic of cholera in Itasca county. The papers stated that in some of the camps the disease had gained great headway, and that the authorities had ordered the closing of all roads and trails into the area, thus allowing no one to enter who had not first been examined by some member of the board of health. The truth of the matter is, that we have had just a few cases of the disease, which were reported before it could be communicated to others.

Wednesday night the newly-elects of the Rathbon Sisters were held as follows: P. C. Ada Kremer; C. C. Elizabeth Hennessy; E. S. the Glover; E. J. Carrie Cockitt; T. Myrtle Nisbett; M. of E. Margaret Kingan; M. R. of C. Jessie St. P. of T. Lillian Gureman; G. of Anne Farrell, Josie Powers, ining officer.

One of the prettiest weddings that has place in Itasca county, occurred Christmas in the M. E. church at Carrie, when Miss Anne Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M.

of the village, was united in marriage to Herman Shoaff, a young well and favorably known throughout the section of the county. The bride attended by Miss Bertha Blood and Brooks while Albert Pearson and Yancy officiated as best men. J. C. Hartley, of the M. E. church, and Rapids, performed the ceremony. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home.

The gillpox situation on the Meba range is becoming alarming, the disease having spread to Sparta, notwithstanding the efforts of the range boards of health to stop its progress. There are at present 100 cases of gillpox in Blwabli, and two Harbors, Virginia, Bufand, Swatara, have a number of cases. It is very difficult to prevent the disease from spreading on account of the ease by which one can travel from one town to the other, and the immunity of those quarantined against the disease.

Charles Johnson, of McKinley, was a Blwabli visitor Monday.

The village council will hold its first regular meeting of the new year next Monday evening.

The Northern Minnesota railway has constructed a new spur leading from the main line to the Nells Lumber company sawmill, which will be of great assistance to the mill company. The spur parallels the sidetrack built by M. E. Brown, a private owner of the Pointe au Lac mill, which will enable the lumber company to dump the logs, which are hauled to "Ch. Lake by rail, almost directly into the chute which conveys them to the saws.

section 16, on the south side of the tract a considerable distance from the village limits, where there is an organized fire department. The alarm was not turned in till after the fire had gained great headway. The fire boys answered promptly but were compelled to lay 1000 feet of hose. They did good work and prevented the fire spreading to adjoining buildings. The new waterworks system, in spite of the length of the hose, did excellent service. Most of the contents of the buildings were saved.

New York, Jan. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—The contrast between the dawn of the twentieth century in America and that of the nineteenth is a very remarkable one. At the dawn of the nineteenth century there were probably a couple of small theatres in New York, each with a company of small theatre players, forty first-class playhouses, and yet more are projected. In other cities the same thing was witnessed. At the dawn of the previous century a similar progressive development may be noted in the case of the drama. In the days of Macready and Charles John Kean, the earliest stars to reach us had not yet seen the light of day. The drama of our swaddling clothes so far as the drama was concerned.

The twentieth century dawns upon an array of talent here representing the American stage such as never before. The drama is together on this side of the Atlantic.

Not only have we at the present time been able to witness the triumph of the home, growing rich in the appreciation of their own countrymen and countrywomen, but we have also seen the triumph of the "divine" Sarah without the Metropolitan English Chorus. It is not to speak of a host of other English and German combinations and combinations of the two, but of the latter, our galaxy of grand opera singers, as brilliant as any we have gathered in the past.

Not only have we an endless array of vocalists, but we have a host of brilliant pianists, but there is also a plethora of excellent plays for the stage. The Metropolitan has been the proof recently given by the American theater-going public of its appreciation of the drama, and its own self-congratulation.

The ninth season of opera in French, Italian, and English at the Metropolitan opera house under the management of Maurice Grau opened auspiciously. The first night was devoted to the story of "Romeo and Juliet" told either in the form of song or prose.

son was strong in it. In there were Melina, with voice as fine as a bell; and Edouard de Reszke, and Arlette in their familiar roles as the young couple. The first of the new and planned point the opening was the event of the dramatic season. All sorts of things were said, but the thing that was there, grown and belauded to meet the press, was that the new season was to have been or are about to be at least half a dozen new plays staged at the same time. The new season was to be a record for this part of the season. I have already made mention of the principal new play, Le Capitaine Corcoran. The newest piece at the moment is at the Theatre de la Renaissance, Le Testament d'Huntworth's Experiment. The place has had a run of six months at the London Theatre. It is a play by R. C. Canby, the author of Lord and Lady and My Darling, two plays very familiar with me. The motif of the drama is original and new. It is the story of Huntworth's Experiment is very likely to reach its success here. Lady Huntworth is a woman who is not a woman who among other unpleasant things, that she does gets a divorce from her husband. She is a woman who is a woman. She does not pin over her nose, but she is a woman who is a woman. In this situation she accepting a position as

...and, to prove this abrupt departure, in social precedence creates a novel situation, which is reason d'être of the comedy. The cook, who is not only a character, but also, but she is a marvelous cook. Her recipes are the delight of epicureans and the despair of the kitchen. She captures many hearts, man's being supposedly made of a side of the heart. The cook is a character, and the episodes of the drama furnish some wholesome fun, for, especially in her heart, there are some of the most touching and most beautiful scenes of the play. The cook, and "cook lady" Huntworth, has a perfect crown of a time in her heart. at the Park theatre. Unfortunately, about a week ago, he was hit by a car and made a hit there during a week's run which it enjoyed in October. He is now in the "Hall of the Master," where has resumed at the Fourteenth street theatre. He is a very good actor, and his singing performance, Angela Russell, a handsome and clever young actress appearing at the Park theatre, who recently has been playing for a week in the metropolitan, has been very successful. He is now in the Pacific coast, keeping her in the far west, where she is very popular. She is now in the Pacific coast, keeping her in the far west, where she is very popular. mean, though, that Americans are by all means the most discriminating nation in the world. Theatricals have been lavished on the stage every year by our public, the great mass is expected to pay for its entertainment, and it is a very minor consideration, in this country by far the most important, whether the sale—be it what it may—the theater is to amuse, the educational value of the stage is entirely neglected. It is not so here, however, as to do for morals the stage might very easily be made to do for many purposes. In fact, the theater night was more money-making at the back of the theatrical business.

LARGE SALARIES.
Mrs. Sembrich says Hilary H. Bell has received $100,000 for his last tour of concerts. The salaries which we pay by proxy through Mr. Van de Boszke, $1600 a night to Nellie Melba, $1000 a night to Milla Todoroff, $500 a night to Constant Coste, $400 a night to Pauline Viardot, $300 a night to Miklo Palancin and Edmund G. Rosske, $200 a night to each of their families, homes for us. No wonder they want to begin the new century—and it step from the Thack rays seems to have their glimmer and parentage in the world of the Thack rays. The Thack rays, Hardy described so daringly and truthfully in his first novel, requires more than a passing acquaintance—it demands genius, the brilliant genius Mrs. Fiske possesses."

"WAY DOWN EAST"

That theatricalized "Way Down East" (a little picture from the smaller towns of the country to see a first-class attraction, thus for the first time in the country) is so good when the following business is said to have been played by William A. Fiske, "Way Down East." Some of these receipts may be considered rather a reflection on the drawing power of "Way Down East" has never been doubted. The receipts for the first night at the Grand South Ark. $118.45; Hot Springs, Ark., $127.50; Little Rock, Ark., $126.00; Memphis, Tenn., $125.00; Nashville, Tenn., $125.00; and St. Louis, Mo., $125.00. The receipts for the first night at Memphis, where an engagement of three nights was made, were $397.45, giving a total of $875.42 for eight performances. The receipts for the second hard-Connell business.

FOOTLIGHT FLASHES

Michel Gilmore will be seen in "The Gay Grabbit."

There is a new offer to start

John Drew acted "Richard Carvel" 156 times in the last season. The most popular Puccini Caribbetti was "Casal di Poggio," Harrison J. Wolfe's play. The most popular of the new plays was "With Yesterday in London" in "A Broken Heart." Madeleine Lesing has made herself a favorite in the play "The Phantom." Melbourne MacLennan is to lead a St. Louis company during a season of Savoy plays.

Cissy Fitzgerald has a new song and dance, "The Girl from Trevioli, London, in which she wears a dress of the style of 1839.

The "Savoy" company, which has been in London produced for the first time in Dresden, although the opera was sung in German, was not heard in France for some years afterward.

London, the "Savoy" says, Mansfield "would happen then the establishment of a national theatre. Such a national theatre would be the work of the author to write for the stage, and thus would at last be created the national drama, which today does not exist."

Mrs. Langtry has secured all the Eng-

The "Giddy Tronco" cast includes Ray Yale, Louis Francis, Louis Harrison, Mabel Penton, Mammie Gilroy and Pat Rooney.

Reddy has bought the American and English rights to a drama based upon the novel "The Sign of the Cross" which might be described as Mrs. Dreyfus.

Mrs. Katherine Grey (Mrs. John Mason) will probably return to the stage in a month or so for Selma Selig, in the production of the dramatization of Robert Grant's "Unloved Bread."

Robert Grant, about Forbes Robinson, the English actor, who has just married Gertrude Elliott, is that he is coming to the city to see if he can begin the right way to make himself a success.

Edith Barrymore has finally been allotted her leading part in Fitch's "Capt. Corcoran," which she will play. He is an Englishman. Charles Frohman has selected Reeves Smith for the occupation of making stage boys to Miss Barrymore.

three acts; and what means much more than this to Mascagni is that he has been able to get his opera into the hands of his work copyrighted in the United States so that it cannot be pirated. This has been done by the aid of Elizabeth Marbury, his agent. It will be recalled that when "Cavalleria Rusticana" was first produced in New York, it was thought he was thoroughly protected, he found a number of rival productions, and he was forced to leave the reason that the opera was free to all.

MR. FINNEY'S HIT.
The New York Telegraph says: Jameson Lee Finney has made a favorable impression in "Le quat'z' Fantôme" Experiment" at Daly's through his drastic and virulent performance of the character of the "phantom" who is lurking on the verge of the D. T.'s, who thinks he sees spiders most of the time. Finney owes his present opportunity to the fact that E. J. Morgan, originally engaged to play the part of the "phantom," did not like it. That report caused the fact that Richard Mansfield saw the play and thought it was a success. J. H. Stoddard considered the Baron Chevalier in "A Parisian Romance" unworthy of his talents.

FIRST EMPIRE PLAYS.
Here is a list of plays based upon episodes of the First Empire and presented since 1899 at Paris, London, New York, and other cities: "Marschale," at the Ambigu; in 1898, "Mons. Sans Gene," at the Vaudeville; in 1897, "Mons. Sans Gene," at the Vaudeville; in 1896, "La Vivandiere," at the Opera Comed experience, which deserves a place among the successful producers of the Chicago Dramatic Club, and managers of the new actors and managers. Mr. Williams has played in "Way Down East" and "The Sign of the Cross" in the original production. The other day his manager, William A. Brady, urged him for a number of years. Mr. Williams refused, whereupon he received a card from him. He returned next season in "Purdiehead Wilson," under the management of Mr. Brady, who has secured the rights to the play.

CHICAGO'S NEW THEATER.
The leading article in the current issue of the Chicago Dramatic Club, is a sketch of the new Illinois theater, its promoters, founders and architects. It is written by one of its founders, itself, aside from the fact that it will give a definite idea of the theater. The theater is a building that is modern and strictly up-to-date in theatrical building, and should in itself interest all who have an interest in the dramatic and musical performances. Will J. Davis is the manager of the house.

MRS. FISKE'S SUCCESS.
"Mrs. Fiske" has been the success of her first appearance in this play since her great production of "The Sign of the Cross" in the city. The potency of her work in the part of the Heraldo heroine, but there into stronger than the "The Sign of the Cross" in the production of Becky. On the revival of "The Sign of the Cross" the Chicago Evening Post in the Trouble Feared With Venezuela Over American Asphalt Company's Claim.

Willemstad, Curacao, Jan. 7. (Via Haytian cable.)—The United States minister at Curacao, Venezuela, Mr. Loomis, according to the latest advice received here, has not yet succeeded in obtaining justice for the New York and Bermudas Asphalt company in its dispute with the local authorities, and the situation is regarded as critical. Three American warships are either at La Guayra or en their way, the Buffalo, Hartford and Scorpion, and the Americans are contemplating the use of force in obtaining protection for their interests. The local authorities, it was added, encouraged the natives to invade the company's plant.

Reorganization of the London and Globe Finance Corporation Seems Probable.

INVESTORS ARE SHY
Present Conditions Make Financing London Electric Lines a Serious Problem.

New York, Jan. 7.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: The reorganization of the London and Globe Finance corporation now seems probable as a result of the recent flurry in the mining market and the failure of sixteen or twenty operators. A scheme of reorganization has been accepted in principle by thirty-nine creditors of the corporation, and Lord Dufferin, when a meeting of the shareholders is held, this week, will probably be enabled to present a more favorable statement of liabilities and resources than has been expected. Strong interests are behind the reorganization, and the London and Globe market has been depressed and other undertakings have been crippled by the embarrassed position of the corporation, which was promoting a group of over-capitalized enterprises.

DEBATE WILL CLOSE
On Reapportionment Bill at Three O'Clock on Tuesday Afternoon.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Speaker Henderson today was again detained at his home by illness and Mr. Dalzell presided over the house. Before the debate upon the reapportionment bill was resumed, it was agreed that general debate upon the bill should close tomorrow at 3, and that the final vote be taken before the adjournment tomorrow.

THE SENATE.
Washington, Jan. 7.—At the opening of today's session of the senate, Mr. Crumaker, the member of the census committee who presented the minority report in favor of reducing the representation in southern states proportionate to the enlargement of the franchise, then took the floor for an hour. As between the House and the Senate, he favored the House, because it kept pace with the growth of the country. He argued that, during recent years, the influence of the House in legislation had steadily increased. This was due to the fact that the members of the lower house allowed themselves to be dominated by the state and church interests. The members present would remain stationary, as the years went on, its influence would continue to increase.

FIVE BURNED.
Couple and Their Three Children Cremated in Their Burning Home.

Consul Norton Given Papers For Journey to Harpoon.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The Turkish government has furnished Dr. Thomas Norton, who was appointed United States consul at Harpoon, with what are known as traveling papers, constituting a safe conduct to enable the doctor to proceed on his post. There is reason to believe that the action forecasts a compliance by the Turkish government with the request of the department for a regular exequatur for Dr. Norton.

THIRTY-SEVENTH REVIEWED.
Manilla, Jan. 7.—Gen. MacArthur, accompanied by his staff, reviewed the Thirty-seventh regiment of volunteer infantry in the Luneta field this afternoon. All the companies were together almost for the first time since the regiment was organized. After the review the regiment was drawn up in close order and Gen. MacArthur, in a farewell address, congratulated the officers and men on their bravery, discipline and judgment, concluding his remarks with a hearty "God bless you, comrades." The Thirty-seventh will sail for home on the transport Sheridan Thursday. More officers come from Tennessee.

ARMOUR IS NO MORE

The Great Packer Passes Away at His Home in Chicago.

END WAS EXPECTED
Strength Had Been Steadily Declining Since the Beginning of Winter.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Philip Danforth Armour, philanthropist, financier and multimillionaire, head of the vast establishment that bears his name, died at his home, 2115 Prairie avenue, at 5:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A muscular affection of the heart, known to the medical profession as myocarditis, was the immediate cause of death. He had been slowly recovering from pneumonia that for three weeks had threatened his life. At 9 o'clock yesterday morning his heart gave way under the strain of his recent illness, his pulse running up to 160. That was the beginning of the end.

Mr. Armour was surrounded by his family when he died. Those at his bedside, besides his physician and nurses, were his wife, Mrs. Philip D. Armour, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, and Rev. Frank W. Gransauls.

During the day he had said that death was near. To those around him he had said: "I know I am very sick, and am ready for death when it comes."

Soon after luncheon, and just before the physician forbade his talking more, Mr. Armour in feeble tones said that he would like to hear the Lord's prayer read.

One of the trained nurses who had been attending him drew a chair to the bedside and slowly read from the Bible the prayer for the dying man had asked. It was read sentence by sentence, and each was repeated by Mr. Armour. When the "amen" had been repeated by him, he sank back on the pillow and closed his eyes peacefully. It was the last word the great financier spoke except feeble farewells to his family a little later.

The end came after two years of illness, during which time Mr. Armour visited Germany to take his usual trip to Southern California not having been taken this winter. He came down to the office in the Home Insurance building, and as the cold increased he did not come to his home.

He died in the office that he had had an infrequent attack of pneumonia, but it was given out later that a week ago that he was on the road to recovery. It was noted, however, that the constant attendance of Dr. Frank Billings, the family physician, at the bedside of the sick man did not mean that he was in a favorable position at the time of his death.

For several days death had been feared as the end of the great capitalist. They realized that the decline from day to day did not cease until there could be but one end.

When death came, his grandchildren, who had so close to him, were at the bedside at the family residence, as was J. Ogden Armour, the surviving son.

Mr. Armour had lost strength steadily from day to day since the commencement of the winter. The pneumonia was checked, but strength was not regained. The firm grip he had so long maintained upon the business of Armour & Co., whether at the office or thousands of miles away, slowly relaxed. Reports no longer interested him as they were wont to do during the first months of his declining health.

The sudden death of the old man, who had nearly a year ago hung heavily on him during the closing months of his life, in fact, he never recovered from the shock he experienced from that event. It stopped his progress toward recovery in his home at Piquette, and his sorrow remained fresh until the end.

His treatment of work and his firm grip on affairs were maintained until the spring of 1929. Then the machine began to show signs of breaking. Mr. Armour was reported to be a sick man, and these reports were confirmed when he sailed for Germany to take his usual trip to Switzerland, where he remained a month among his relatives.

When he returned to Chicago that fall he was looking well, and his friends heeded his recovery. He was in good health when he went to Danforth Lodge, the summer home of his son, Philip D. Armour, Jr., at Oconomowoc Lake, Wis., and remained there until nearly winter. Then he journeyed to President in Southern California, for the cold months. All the time he was at Oconomowoc, he made weekly trips to his office in the Home Insurance building and was receiving constant reports of the general drift of his business affairs.

The death of his son, Philip D. Armour, Jr., in Southern California, on Jan. 29, 1929, was a great shock to the health of the old man. The son had been on a visit to his father and was taken suddenly with pneumonia. His death followed with scarcely a day's warning. The son had largely inherited the father and inherited the business ability of the father. He was closely following the footsteps of the head which he was stricken down. His beautiful home, completed but a year or two before at Michigan avenue and Thirty-seventh street told of his love of art.

Mr. Armour was not able to accompany the funeral party to Chicago. When he did return here he went direct to Oconomowoc and remained there until the chill weather in the fall drove the summer cottagers to their city homes.

After the death of Philip D. Armour, Jr., the vast interests of Armour & Co., which had been carried on as a partnership, were incorporated under the old name of Armour & Co. This was to provide greater stability in case of death and made no change in the practical ownership of properties. Some years before, the great department had been incorporated under the title of the Armour Elevating Company. The death of Philip D. Armour at Kansas City in March, 1929, caused no particular change in the Armour interests there, as they were operated as a stock company.

So carefully had the plans for the future been made, that the death of Mr. Armour would have little effect on the outward working of the great enterprise with which he has been so closely identified. It is believed all the Armour properties will be held intact until the grandchildren come into their inheritance.

Estimates of Mr. Armour's own estate run from $100,000,000 to $250,000,000. This, of course, does not include the $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 owned by the younger members of the family. For years every enterprise he was interested in has been making immense profits. His holdings of stock have all advanced during the last three years.

Philip D. Armour, who was in his 69th year, made his own life on lines unique and wholly original with himself. From a not over-rich Onondaga county, New York, farm, to the position of paying more freight and controlling more provisions than any other man in the world, were the extremes of his life. The ancestral Armour were Connecticut people, but Philip Armour was New York. His father, John, was a pioneer New York in 1840, and the young Armour was the first in Stockbridge to determine to visit the Pacific coast. He secured the permission of his parents, and at the age of 17, started, having three or four companions from the same region. The almost incredible part of the story is that the party was not separated until they reached New York to California. The commercial sense, which always predominated in the family, was present as soon as he saw the gold fields of California. He made money from the start, and in six years he returned home with a fortune. Becoming disinterested with the gold fields, he went to the coast, and in a year's time he purchased the largest gold mine in California, the Comstock. He then came to Chicago to take charge of the Chicago branch of the family packing establishment. The result was that he made money, and he was a branch, and the West gained the largest packing and provision plant in the world.

The property interests for which Mr. Armour stood are estimated at $100,000,000. His personal share of the estate is variously estimated at from $25,000,000 to $100,000,000.

In works of charity Mr. Armour's monument will be found in the Armour Trust, which he established in 1894. He gave $5,000 in one remembrance. Asked once who he could read his best paying investment, he replied: "The Armour Institute."

The institute today represents an investment of the part of Mr. Armour and his brother Joseph of $2,750,000, and the expense for maintenance of $100,000.

Mr. Armour was a heavy owner of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company, and in the reorganized Baltimore & Ohio. He was interested largely in the Erie Railroad Trust and Erie Railroad National and Northern Trust companies of Chicago, and in the Armour Bank of Kansas City. He was a director of the Northwestern Life Insurance company, and was a heavy stockholder in the company which controls the street railways of Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kas.

Referring to Mr. Armour's fortune, the Chicago Chronicle today says: "It is probable that the estate of Philip D. Armour, but just how much has been carried in his own name, and how much in the name of his sons, is unknown. He has always been able to pay cash for his purchases, and he never asked a customer to discount a bill."

In his great wealth he has always had ready cash. In times of panic he has shown vast resources in cash. In 1906, when a panic broke out, he loaned $100,000,000 to the banks of Chicago, and the credit of the city and the fate of the expedition was hanging in the balance. Philip D. Armour bought half a million of gold in Europe and offered to help the big insurance company. He cash resources in Chicago. With a business of $100,000,000 a year in the packing department alone, a grain business of half that amount, and practically the owner of a great railway system, the estimates of his wealth at the utmost figure appear modest indeed of exaggeration.

Mr. Armour married Miss Malvina Bell Ogden, daughter of Jonathan Ogden, of Cincinnati, Oct. 1, 1852. They have had two children, Philip D. Armour, Jr., who died a year ago, and J. Ogden Armour, who seems destined by character, training and circumstances to succeed his father as the head of the Armour house. Of the five brothers who have been identified with the upbuilding of the Armour enterprises, Herman O. Armour, now president of the Armour & Co. bank, after the New York interests of the partnership, is the only survivor.

HIS DESIRE GRATIFIED

James J. Hill's Dream of Railroad Conquest Has Finally Been Fulfilled.

REGARD OF SUCCESS
One of Owners of Road to Run From Sea to Sea.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—The Times-Herald prints the following story from New York:

James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern railway, and one of the potent factors in the affairs of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, has practically accomplished what he set out to do 25 years ago, or in 1913.

The merging of the interests of the Great Northern and those of the Northern Pacific, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Erie and the Reading interests in the triumph of a line that has been bent to but one purpose for more than a quarter of a century, the creation of a transcontinental line from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The completion of the work is estimated to have cost $200,000,000. Mr. Hill has commanded that sum here.

Quick upon the heels of his harmonious arrangements with the Northern Pacific, the Milwaukee and the Erie came on Saturday the sale of the Jersey Central railroad by the Morgan interests to the Philadelphia & Reading Railway company, and the acquisition by the latter of the Jersey City and New York City terminals.

This was but a new move on the checkerboard that has been going on since the death of the late Mr. Hill. The factors are the Morgans, Harrimans, Vanderbilts, Hills, Beans, and a few others. Synonymous, too, with the Jersey Central sale and the practical consummation of President Hill's dream was the sale of the Milwaukee and Erie roads, which were sold to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

When he commenced his career as a railroad builder and master of railroad finance, Mr. Hill set out to build a line from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The road had been started with the intention of running from New York to the Pacific coast.

This story of the westward march is not new. But it is a story that has been told over and over again. The story of the westward march is not new. But it is a story that has been told over and over again.

It will be noted in all of Mr. Hill's transactions that the line of the Great Northern, Montreal, and some of the other lines, have been acquired. The line of the Great Northern, Montreal, and some of the other lines, have been acquired.

WHAT SHALL WE EAT

To Keep Healthy and Strong.

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best, in spite of the claims made by vegetarians and food cranks generally.

Dr. Julius Krimmson, on this subject, says: "Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat food at first it may be easily strengthened by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three or four hours, while the meat indigestion also contained in Stuart's Tablets cause the perfect digestion of starchy foods, like potatoes, bread, etc., and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply the peristalsis and distaste so necessary to perfect digestion, and any form of indigestion and trouble, whether it be a case of the stomach, will be overcome by their daily use.

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspepsia, which is a condition of the stomach, and its complete digestion by the systematic use of a safe, harmless digestive medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, composed of the natural digestive principles, peptones and diastase, which are the natural constituents of the stomach, and give the abused stomach a chance to rest and to furnish the body and brain with the necessary nutrient. These cathartic medicines masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures are useless for relief or cure of dyspepsia, because they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food, and the remedy is to make daily use at meal time of a safe preparation which will aid the stomach in its work, and which is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and all this can be truly said of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

All druggists throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain sell them at the uniform price of 50 cents for full treatment.

The Hill interests grabbed Northern Minnesota with a vengeance. The main line, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Erie and the Reading interests in the triumph of a line that has been bent to but one purpose for more than a quarter of a century, the creation of a transcontinental line from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

OMEGA OIL

Rub Omega Oil on your feet if they are sore and tender, or if they itch, burn or swell. In all your born days, you never saw such a comforting, soothing and pleasant thing for the feet as this wonderful green-colored liniment from Switzerland. Rub your feet first in warm water, wipe dry, and then rub on plenty of the Oil. Rub hard and long, and then your feet will be as sound as ever. Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

The continuation will take rank as one of the few very large ones which have been observed. The figures of the Jersey Central's bonded debt and stock issues, its total bonds are $17,000,000, on which an annual interest of $2,000,000 is paid. In addition, Jersey Central guarantees interest of $2,000,000 on bonds of several lines amounting to $2,000,000. These bonds lines include the New York and Long Island railroad, the Lehigh Valley and Hudson River railroad, and the Lehigh and Western Coal company.

The total assets of Jersey Central stock is $22,000,000. On this dividend of 7 per cent, the stockholders will receive $1,540,000, in 1930, and $1,540,000, in 1931, and $1,540,000, in 1932.

The significance of the entire deal, in addition to its financial value, is that it connects the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad company with the Jersey City and New York City terminals, while the Baltimore & Ohio company uses leased lines or is operated over the Pennsylvania lines to Philadelphia, and the talk of through connection with the Rock Island line, the next move of the Morgan interests in the acquisition of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, which is the connecting link between the Philadelphia & Reading and the Western trunk lines.

ALL FUR COATS AT COST.

There is no discounting the gigantic character of this purchase and sale; there's no getting away from the magnificence of the values offered. A change in the firm of the Kuh, Nathan & Fischer Co. caused them to offer their entire stock—some $350,000 of seasonal clothing—at public auction. Mr. Burrows was on the ground, and bid in 2000 of their choicest Overcoats and Ulsters at his own price. Heavenrich Bros., of Detroit, Mich., finding themselves overstocked with Fall and Winter Suits of this season's make on account of the unseasonable weather, and knowing that an almost total loss would result if they attempted to carry this stock over, they concluded to sell for what they could get. Knowing our immense outlet Mr. Heavenrich came to Duluth and personally made a deal with Mr. Burrows to take their entire surplus stock at 50c on the dollar. Both Kuh, Nathan & Fischer Co. and Heavenrich Bros. are makers of the Finest Ready-to-wear Clothing in the United States—a fact undisputed—nothing but the best materials were used, and the really sensible styles followed, so that every garment in this sale possesses all points of merit and fashion.

West Duluth

The political situation in the Eighth ward as set forth by The Herald last Saturday afternoon occasioned considerable surprise in West Duluth, but none of the Democrats claim to have been struck by any of the "thunderbolts from a clear sky." Said a prominent Democrat of the Eighth ward this morning: "You can say that the supporters of Mr. Kern laugh at the statement that he is not well enough known to the voters of the Eighth ward. The voters of West Duluth will be the best judges of that matter. You can also put it down that a mass meeting won't go. There is no reason for a mass meeting to be held unless the idea is advanced by somebody that has no place in a Democratic caucus. We don't need mass meetings, the caucus will decide the candidate. All meetings that have been held have been open to all Democrats, and the sentiment heard all along has been in favor of Mr. Kern. In fact we did not suppose there was another candidate for the nomination. Another thing that the West Duluth French Democratic club would like to know, and that is, by what authority President LeFevre speaks for the club? Let them speak for themselves, and the party will be united on the candidate that is nominated."

"But our Republican friends need not count on a fight this trip. It will be friendly set-to in the primaries, and if Mr. Dornedy wins out he will have the support of those back of Mr. Kern, while if the latter is successful we are sure Mr. Dornedy's friends will submit as gracefully, and the party will be united on the candidate that is nominated."

The Democratic caucuses will be held at the polling places in the various precincts of the wards tomorrow, and the indications are there will be a large turn-out in both the Seventh and Eighth wards.

A TERRIBLE INJURY.
Malmed for life, the right leg amputated between the ankle and knee and the right arm off near the shoulder, such is the condition of John Peterson, of West Duluth, who has been crippled by Mitchell & McClure. Last Saturday afternoon, Peterson was engaged in cutting the ice about a big pile of logs that were to be sunk at the tollway at the mill, over which a track was laid, and trains run on the same. Peterson was saving in front of the pile, and some of the employees were standing near him. He was standing on one side of the line he was saving so as to get out of the dividing line made by the saw, and when the ice gave way he slipped and fell in his attempt to get out of the way, and was pinned to the ice by a big line. He was released and taken to the Red Cross hospital, where amputation was found necessary. This morning Mr. Peterson was doing as well as can be expected and will recover. He has a wife and two small children.

WEST DULUTH BRIEFS.
A. W. Ridd had the fingers of his left hand smashed at the car works last week so badly as to necessitate amputation of all the members. He had been working in West Duluth but a few days when the accident occurred.
George Ross, who has undergone two operations at St. Mary's hospital, was removed to his home today.
Mrs. S. Axford and son, William Axford, have returned from a short visit at McKinley, Minn.
Miss May Malough has returned to her school work at Two Harbors.
James Johnson, janitor of the Red Cross hospital, has been operated on at the hospital for the appendicitis.
Miss E. C. Tarral has resumed her duties in the Duluth Transfer railway office after a holiday vacation.
Miss Mary Laneour, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss J. Jones, at the Marquette house during the last week, has returned to her home in Clouet.
William Fortune, of Grand Rapids, Minn., and Mrs. Scanton, of West Duluth, were married in the Jones parish this morning by Rev. Father Fecheley. The bridal couple left shortly afterward for their home in Grand Rapids.

SLIGHTLY FIRMER TONE.

Egg Market Shows More Strength With a Good Demand.

Eggs started in the week with a slightly firmer tone, owing to the cold weather, and the demand picked up considerably. Storage were quoted at 21¢22 cents for No. 1 and countries at 24 cents, with no great disposition on the part of holders to push out stocks. The tone of the poultry market was steady. Unfrozen stock was in fairly good demand, and chickens ruled around 9 cents and turkeys 11 cents, with frozen stock 14¢15 cents under these figures.
There was a weaker tone in butter. Creamery was quoted at 22¢24 cents for choice in tubs and 25¢26 cents for prints, while dairy was unchanged at 18¢20 cents for fancy.
Cheese was steady so far as late makes were concerned, early makes continuing neglected and weak in tone.
Fruit and vegetables were unchanged and fairly steady throughout, with the movement rather slow.

Will Install Officers.

The uniform rank of the Knights of the Maccoches will have an installation of officers tomorrow evening at the Hunter block hall. It is open to all Maccoches at the head of the table, and a fine stag program will be arranged, and after the installation there will be a smoker. The members expect to entertain their friends in a very happy manner.

Easy and Delicious Desserts.

THE DAKOTAS.

Intense Feeling in Cavalier County, N. D., Over the Mellem Murder.

Grand Forks—There appears to be intense feeling in Southern Cavalier county over the killing of Andrew Mellem by his employer, William Barry. The early reports of the terrible event, obtained by telephone, by letter, and by personal conversation with men who had come down from Milton, Langdon and other points in Cavalier county, were all practically alike except in certain minor details, and tend to show that Mr. Barry's act was committed after experience which would be likely to render the average man capable of the commission of almost any act.

That this view of the case is not by any means the only one entertained is evident from a statement made by a prominent resident of Milton. This gentleman states that the published reports have been entirely untrue to Mr. Barry, having magnified the features of the case which are in his favor, and having ignored those which told against him. He states that public sentiment in Milton is very emphatically against Barry, and that he has earlier information that he has committed a cold blooded murder. The story of Barry's night on the prairie, as narrated, the fact being that she went from her own home to a neighbor's, and the night being very cold, she was slightly frost bitten on the way over. The gentleman who made this statement is of unimpeachable integrity, as were also the men from whom he obtained his information. There has evidently been a mistaken construction on the part of some one of some of Barry's statements, as he is the person from whom all the information thus obtained has originally come.

The White Sale is on in Full Force!

There will be very little sewing on Muslin Underwear—in Duluth this year if you appreciate our assortment as we do—when it was a choice of buying poorly made sweatshop undergarments or making them yourself, perhaps the home work was cheapest—it was surely safest and best, but in buying Underwear from us you take no risk, nothing is left to chance; every selection is of the best, no skimmed sewing, no cheap material—and all good generous sizes. And the prices—remember this is the store's yearly starting point, and one of the greatest efforts of the year—and prices have never been so closely shaved, and at no other time in the year will you find such liberal assortments as now.

Drawers.

A good way to test the truth is to try it. Take the cost of materials, the cost of trimmings, (we'll throw in the sewing worry), sum them up and compare with these offerings. You'll be surprised at the result.

25c—Good Muslin Drawers with yoke band, double at the bottom with hemstitched ruffle.
50c—Fine Muslin Drawers with yoke band and six tucks. Two styles.
50c—Cambric Drawers with hemstitched ruffle and tucks.
40c—Fine Cambric Drawers with yoke band and six tucks.
50c—Muslin Drawers with yoke band and six tucks. Four styles.
50c—Muslin and Cambric Drawers, four styles, round and square necks, hemstitched, lace and embroidery.
50c—Fine Muslin, trimmed with lace and inserted and 25c—Cambric and finer up to $5.00.

Corset Covers.

Made square neck, made V neck, of excellent cuttings of some complexions some are finely plain, some daintily trimmed with lace or embroidery, and all yes, every one of them at prices lower than even the store can afford to sell them at any other time than this.

25c—Fine Cambric Corset Covers, full or light-fitting, square or round neck, finished with drawing string at waist. Trim these at home with dainty laces.

35c—Cambric Corset Covers, square and V-neck, lace and embroidery trimmed—light-fitting.

50c—Cambric and Nainsook, light styles—trimmed with lace, insertion and ribbon, and some with embroidery—light-fitting and full front.

50c—Fine Cambric, trimmed with Torcher lace and ribbon at neck—full, with drawing string at waist.

75c—Nainsook, full front, lace insertion—tucked back, trimmed with two rows of Petticoats.

The plainest, simplest sorts of skirts are here and then by easy stages advancing to the dainty, lace-trimmed garments which are very different from the simple skirts of skirt.

50c—Good Muslin with 12 inch ruffle, edged with lace.

50c—Fine Muslin, deep ruffle of lawn trimmed with tucks and lace.

110c—Cambric, with deep ruffle of lawn, trimmed with two clusters of fine tucks.

110c—Muslin, with deep lawn ruffle edged with Torcher lace and six tucks.

110c—Fine Cambric with deep lawn umbrella, double, with seven tucks.

110c—Fine Cambric, with deep ruffle trimmed with tucks, insertion and Torcher lace. And still finer up to $2.50.

Night Gowns.

Nothing appeals more to a woman than a dainty night robe, and "dainty" is a weak description of the garments we will show during this sale. They are creations, dreams. And the prices are on the smallest attraction. Experts turning out hundreds of garments daily must needs do so at a much lower figure than your home seamstress. Every night robe in this big purchase is evidence of that fact.

At 60c—Muslin, high neck, yoke of tucks and embroidery, neck and sleeves trimmed with cambric ruffle.

75c—Gowns of good muslin yoke and sleeves, finishing, lay-down collar.

110c—Fine muslin, trimmed with hem-stitching and tucks, neck and sleeves trimmed with hem-stitched ruffle, four styles.

110c—Cambric Gowns, with square yoke of fine tucks and Valenciennes insertion, and tucked lawn ruffle at neck and sleeves.

110c—Fine muslin and Cambric—six styles, embroidery and lace trimmed high and low neck.

110c—Good muslin, yoke of fine tucks, low neck, finished with narrow embroidery. Extra sizes. Six styles, including lisp.

110c—Fine Cambric—Trimmed with Torcher lace and insertion, square necks; ruffles over shoulder, edged with lace, four styles.

110c—Best finished Cambric, trimmed with fine tucks and embroidery; others still finer, up to $2.50.

CHEMISE.

50c Chemise of good muslin—square neck and embroidery trimmed.

65c—Of Fine Muslin, trimmed with hemstitched lawn ruffle.

$1.00—Of Fine Lawn, round yoke of lace neck and armholes trimmed with lace. Three styles.

$1.25—Of Fine Lawn, trimmed with lace insertion and ribbon. Three styles. Finer up to $5.

January Sale of Household Linens.

Our linens are known far and wide and have for years stood the supreme test of comparison. Our own investigations, as well as the statements of a host of customers, clearly shows that nowhere in this vicinity are such values given as enter into our all-year-round Linen Business. That is our standard; the low prices result from advantageous purchases and long business relations with the best Linen Importers. The opportunity now offered is one that no economical housewife can afford to neglect.

A PRIZE CONTEST.

Great Northern Railroad Inaugurates an Interesting One.

A prize contest for the best written ad is the latest thing to be inaugurated by the Great Northern Railway company. The idea is quite unique, coming as it does from a railroad company, a corporation that has never before entered the advertising field. The contest has been sent out over the Northwest by P. J. Whitney of St. Paul, general manager and chief agent of the line, which gave the details of this interesting scheme. The company desires ads that will best forth the opportunities existing in Washington, "The Evergreen State," and has offered two fine prizes for the two best propositions.
